

THE EDITOR'S COLUMN

BY G. D. M. The Country is really beginning to bounce from the effects of Centennial planning over the past three or four years. We'd have to admit we were among those who felt like...

First was the great success of the annual Jarvis May 24th celebration. Everything seemed to be quite normal up to the week-end of the celebration and then it came upon us...

All loyal citizens will be heartened by the visit of Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh to Canada this past week-end. The latent forces of discourtesy from Separatists and others...

THE EDITOR'S COLUMN

It is so easy to neglect to reflect upon the meaning of history. We'd be the first to admit that, alone, have made this Country a great Nation in the first 100 years of Confederation.

There is one great difference between the ball game and the game of life. You can usually count upon the ball game giving each man a turn with three chances to strike a good run.

Mountaineers found a tiny oak tree ten inches tall growing out of the crevice of a rock high up in the mountains. Down in the valley its rich soil, its warm air, its good rains...

APPRECIATION

Following the Combined Centennial Worship Service in Jarvis on Sunday afternoon, July 2, 1967, a presentation was made on behalf of the Town...

WHAT ABOUT THE YUKON?

A reader phoned in indignation the other day because the CBC's '24 Hours' program had just finished teaching hundreds of children that there are only six time zones in Canada. They forgot about the Yukon as usual.

EDITOR'S NOTE

For the next five weeks we are publishing historical poems commemorating the Centennial. They were natural gas and they shined.
