THE EDITOR'S COLUMN

We were not able to attend the Centennial Celebration at Nanticoke on Saturday, July 15th, but we do have a complete report on the day from the staff and it must be recorded as a day to be remembered by all present citizens of the community as well as those who have their roots there.

Mother Nature did not contribute more than her fair share to the success of the plan only a Parade that could only be described as tremendous, managed to be completed before the rains fell. It did however, spoil the sports program during the afternoon. The Fish Fry, at the supper room, restored things to normal by evening, and everyone enjoyed this part of the program.

Perhaps the main aspect of the Nanticoke Centennial Celebration was the dedication of the new street lights in the Village. The lights were officially dedicated by Watpole Reeves E. H. Montague at dusk, Saturday, July 15, 1967. Fifteen standards now point the way for the citizens of Nanticoke who, until now, have had no street lighting.

We often find that these advancements are accomplished by the initiative of two present citizens of the Village who are not native to it. They are Cameron Thomson and Ernest Welt. Cameron Thomson operates a Milk Transport business out of Nanticoke and Ernest Welt operates the General Store in the Village. Together they undertook the negotiations with the Township Council required to set up a debt-free issue that will, in fifteen years, eliminate the cost of the installation. It is not going to

BOOKS FOR THE BAND

REGINA (CP) - Four Saskatchewan Indian bands are believed to be the first in Canada to become full-fledged members of a regional library organization. The Cowessess, Sakapew, Ochapowich and Humberstone reserves all asked to join in a library system with the communities of Broadview, Whitewood and Grenfell.

It is a well known fact that Nanticoke will pay about $1.25 per month during that period to meet the cost and in the meantime will have the glorious benefit of street lighting.

This may, conceivably, be a first step in the future awaiting this community. Within a few short weeks the initial work will be taken in a $24 million dollar development at Nanticoke by Ontario Highway 10.

What this development will mean to the community is only conjecture at this point. It would be unwise for anyone to contemplate a future of tremendous economic development, but by the same token, it will certainly be significant.

There is little change in Nanticoke from seventy five years ago. The Haldimand Atlas, of that date, relates "it has a population of 200 and contains a grist mill, carriage shop, hotel, two stores etc. Col. G. B. Hall settled here in 1830 and for many years carried on an extensive business, but for the last few years its progress has been somewhat checked by trade being diverted to points on the Railways.

JARVIS HIGHWAY MESS APPALLING

(The Simcoe Reformer)

There is no earthly reason why public money cannot be appropriated for the thousands of motorists who use the roads each day. In the alternative, if the government continues to ignore this problem, it will have to answer to the people at election time. The highways in Jarvis has become more than just a local problem, causing widespread aggression and dissatisfaction with the "good government" with which we are supposedly blessed in Ontario. Whether the original contractor or the municipality was at fault in the abandonment of the road jobs has little bearing at this late date. What is needed is some leadership from the Ontario Department of Highways.

GOING TO EXPO?

I've just returned from Montreal, where I spent a very interesting three days acquiring information regarding Expo 67. As I have to answer any inquiries made of me, I thought I would like to share with you some of the things I learned. The Expo site itself is not open to the public as yet, but I had the opportunity to drive across the bridge which passes over the St. Lawrence River. I can assure you that the sights and sounds of Expo 67 will delight and thrill all who are fortunate enough to visit Canada's first World Fair.

PERSONALS

Many favourable comments have been made regarding the new column of "News of Jarvis" in the Haldimand Spectator. Miss Jean McGregor of Caledonia was the guest of Mrs. R. M. Smith Monday afternoon.

Mr. Laird Mure has been a patient in the Haldimand Hospital, Hagersville, the past week. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Tothpal of Niagara Falls spent the week at the home of Mrs. M. R. M. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clement of Woodstock will be holding in Port Dover next week a reception for Mrs. R. M. Smith.

The Rev. K. N. Brunton has returned to his home at Woodville. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bevis and daughter returned to her home in Decatur, Illinois after visiting in Port Dover and vicinity in Varenzy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lea Hoover and family have returned to the Village after a two week vacation in Ontario, Quebec and Expo '67.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Blight and daughters of Waterdown spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. S. M. Blight. Miss Marilyn Blight remained for the week with her grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart VanLoon of Madison, Ontario have returned to their home after visiting at the home of Mrs. VanLoon's sister, Mrs. Harold Heston, all of whom had attended the wedding of Mr. William VanLoon and Miss Erica Weisand in Toronto a week ago.

Friday, July 14, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Smith and the three children, Patricia Dawn, Marz and Kevin visited with Mrs. Smith's parents in the manse. Patti remained with her grandparents Sunday afternoon.

At 4 the Junior Congregation, Rev. and Mrs. Taylor-Munro, Mrs. May Muscatello and her family, the back to Vineland and job. A happy group of relatives and neighbours tried to help Mark observe his 4th birthday. Mark remained at Vineland to help her mother and to enjoy the summer during the balance of the ensuing week.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

106 Crescent Boulevard, Simcoe, Ontario
Dear Sir: My good wishes to the new Editor and Publisher of the Haldimand Spectator and may the enclosure renew my subscription. We are already enjoying our editorial corner and are pleased to know another "Millionaire" is following the tradition of bringing us the "Jarvis news". Good luck to you in this new venture from this branch of the family and we'll be looking forward each week to the weekly news.
Sincerely,
Mrs. E. Netta Dineen

FROM OUR FILES

Week end storms destroyed crops on the farms of F. W. Reil and Mrs. L. C. Allen and Wm. MacMurchy. The barn of John Johnson was destroyed by lightning. Hydro service was disrupted by trees falling at John Well's and Leonard's farms.

Dairy employees enjoyed a picnic party at the Lake home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Allen. The highlight of the evening was presentations to former members of the staff including C. O. Dell, Miss Eileen Marshall and Mrs. David Banks.

The presentations were made by John Whittaker, Newton Marshall and Mrs. J. A. Marshall. Miss Margaret Douglas was awarded the T.O.M. Silver Medal for 1941-42 season. These medals were awarded to examinee candidates who obtain the highest marks in music in each province.

J. W. Hodgson, local apiculturist, has been awarded the appointment of Inspector in 1967 and this year will not be heavy and this will be a disappointment to the bees.

Mr. Brooks resigned as City Editor of the Haldimand Spectator to assume his new responsibilities. He is a son of Canon E. A. Brooks, Rector of St. Paul's Anglican Church, and

POEMS ABOUT NANTICOKE

JOHN HOWEYS SAW MILL AT NANTICOKE
By Hazel Ward, 1915
Brantford was a small town in 1888
David Watrous sold machinery,
Uncle John Calvin Howey (son of James Howey) of Nanticoke
had a saw mill at this time
The farmers were tearing down
small log buildings
Uncle John needed a steam engine
and he had $75 in his pocket.
He hitched a span of black horses
to a farm wagon
And drove from Nanticoke to Brantford
Over clay and corduroy roads.
It was a thirty-three mile trip.
He told David Watrous of his need.
And of his need of a steam engine
To cut the logs and plane plank
for barn building.
David Watrous had the engine
for which
Uncle John was looking.
He told Uncle John the price,
One hundred and fifty dollars.
Seventy-five dollars for his engine.
Howey's saw mill was in operation in Nanticoke until 1915.

YOU CONTROL THE GROWING CONTROL THE HARVESTING CAN CONTROL THE MARKETING

By marketing your grain through your Co-op, you and thousands of farmer-producers will have a greater influence in the grain market. This more effective control by farmers is reflected in the fact that now more than one-third of Ontario's cash grain crop is marketed through Co-ops. Your local Co-op has complete facilities to assure you of fast handling, accurate weighing, moisture-testing and grading... this year, market your grain through the farmers' own organization - the Co-op.
