IS WORK A PRIVILEGE?

Work is a punishment, a duty, a burden, a necessity. The very fact that a question can be asked without being regarded as blasphemous shows how far we have come in our thinking compared with that of a generation ago.

In the third chapter of Genesis it is regarded as a punishment because Adam sinned, and in the ground for that he took his food. The Bible also and thistles shall bring forth to thee in the sweat of thy face. The story of the Garden of Eden was written by some ancient Hebrew scribe to explain the origin of sin and also a certain of hard work, especially in relation to the different crafts and occupations and their obstacles in nature.

However, the more common view is that work is a privilege. In the Bible, work is regarded as a privilege. In the Bible, work is regarded as a privilege. In the Bible, work is regarded as a privilege.

ELECTED LIONS DIST. GOVERNOR

DAVID BANKS

HAPPY RETURNS

Congratulations to Mr. Jack Deller lifelong resident of Jarvis who will celebrate his 74th birthday on Monday, June 5th.

On Monday next, June 5, 1967, Les S. Marshall will mark his 80th birthday. He has been an active four score years and it has been a most pleasant evening with the affluence of our present day society could not have been dreamed of.

As a young man he sought to attain all the academic attainments available and at that point he attempted to put his knowledge into use.

In 1912 he bought the Black Creek Creamery from the late J.J. Parsons. He operated this business with unusual success until 1924, when he sold out to Caledonia Creameries Ltd. and moved to Jarvis to manage their operation here. In 1927 this business was taken over by Hamilton Dairies Ltd. and two years later the operation was acquired by The Borden Co. Ltd. Throughout each transition Les Marshall remained as a consultant.

He has been a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church since 1912. He is a member of the Jarvis Lions Club and has served as Treasurer of the Jarvis Lions Club and Treasurer of Knox Presbyterian Church. He has been a part of his extra-curricular activities. A busy man in the meantime, his dearly beloved wife has operated a hairdressing establishment for the service and convenience of the community in which they live.

They have four sons: Wayne, Wesley, Robert, and James.

Cotton Plant Thrives in Walpole

Mrs. Malcolm derives much enjoyment from growing plants and flowers, tells us that the plant which she took a certain amount of extra care, now has its second cotton ball, and another short-lived bloom, which will soon become another ball of cotton, as well as several more buds. The Malcolm farm home is located on the 16th Concession of Walpole Township, near Hartford.
