

THE EDITOR'S COLUMN

BY G. D. M.

Have you planned your visit to the Stratford Festival this year? This week we went to see "The Merry Wives of Windsor" and had a very pleasant evening.

We left from work for Stratford, arriving in time for dinner at the Queens Hotel (having previously made reservations) for the 7 p.m. sitting. The Edinburgh Room offers a varied menu, suitable for a family outing, with terrific home-cooked delicacies such as rolls, fresh vegetables, desserts and very reasonable at that. We were finished in plenty of time to drive to the theatre. Take a stroll - a few crumbs for the swans on the Avon and arrived in our seats at the first sounds of the trumpets.

Since we don't want to spoil the play for anyone planning to attend, we will just say the "Merry Wives of Windsor" has a very humorous, intricate plot and sub-plot. William Shakespeare was certainly in one of his spicier moods when he wrote this play. The scenery, typical of Shakespeare settings, is at a minimum but there is so much happening on the stage it doesn't seem necessary to have any more. Costumes are not particularly colorful, nor drab, but appropriate. If you don't have time to bone up on the play before you go, the program gives a complete synopsis.

This is the fifteenth season of the Stratford Festival. The Festival started first in a large tent but is now a beautiful theatre and cool - the latter being most important in the summer. It is laid out well as you can see and hear from any lo-

More people buy new Chevrolets than any other new car

You can be sure of the car more people are buying. And more people buy new Chevrolets than any other new car. There are reasons for this. A lot of good reasons.

Five exciting Chevrolet series for a start: Caprice, Impala Super Sport, Impala, Bel Air, Biscayne.

17 beautiful models to choose from: convertibles, hardtops, sedans, station wagons. A big choice.

One to suit you. Chevrolet gives you a great range of performance teams: economical Sixes, small V8s, big V8s, all-out V8s; transmissions: 3-Speed manual, 4-on-the-floor, Powerglide automatic and Turbo Hydra-Matic that lets you do both... shift through gears manually or go fully automatic. Chevrolet rides smoother. Corners easier. Runs quieter. With all these good reasons for owning a Chevrolet going for you, no wonder it's your best buy. If you need another one, consider this. There's never been a better time to buy. Your Chevrolet dealer's deals are right. Trade-in values high. Immediate delivery on most models. Test drive a new Chevrolet today. You won't need another reason to go Chevrolet.
