200 ATTEND HALDIMAND-NORFOLK PRESBYTERIAL ANNUAL MEETING

The fifth annual meeting of the Haldimand-Norfolk Presbyterial United Church Women was held in Grace United Church, Port Dover. President, Mrs. Lee Simington of Waterford welcomed the many delegates and guests. The members were led in worship by Mrs. Charles McKay and Mrs. H. Lambert of Courtland. A Salute to our Centennial Year was convened by Mrs. James JacGowan of Waterford. The minutes of early church meetings were read and Mrs Geo. Lech led in the singing of the Centennial Hymn. The crasurer's report showed that the Presbyterial had raised $20,250 as their share of the Uffied Budget and $175 for the Over and Above Fund.

The pseaker of the morning session was Mrs. Harry Schaff, Finance Chairman, Hamilton Conference. United Church Women. Mrs. Schaff stressed that to meet the challenge of to day we must gradually go forward.

The afternoon speaker was Dr. G. K. McMillan of Burlington—president of Hamilton Conference. Speaking on the subject New Math in the U. C. W., he stated. "Subtract dishe of change Let there be no division among you. Add to faith, genuinc goodness, to goodness — knowledge. Spirit of Christ mittiples the capacity of a person. One defense of the whiole group."
