JARVIS LIONS HEAD FIRST MAJOR CENTENNIAL YEAR CELEBRATION

IN HALDIMAND COUNTY HELD DURING PAST WEEK-END

THOUSANDS OF SPECTATORS LINE PARADE ROUTE

Estimates of the number of spectators lining the parade route from Jarvis to Hagersville on Monday night as high as fifteen thousand. They were not disappointed in what they saw.

The parade in this Centennial year exceeded anything in the past and the floats reflected the spirit of the occasion and the spirit of the people.

The parade started at 8 P.M. and went eastward to Waterford. Arriving at Main Street, the parade proceeded south to the 3rd Highway, west to Davis Street and back to the park. To give some idea of the length of the parade, there were still entries waiting to leave the park after the parade had returned.

In addition to the Calhoun parade, there were the Hagersville Lions Club Band, The Brantford Fire Band and the Cayuga Trumpet Band.

award for the best dressed lady with second prize going to Mrs. Kenneth Hopper.

Best dressed man was William Snowden with second prize going to Roy Lindsay.

Carl Jones was the gentleman with the blackest beard; Gordon Miller had the reddest beard and the longest hair.

The couple attending the ball coming from the longest distance from Jarvis was Mr. and Mrs. Bob White from Chicago.
