

THE EDITOR'S COLUMN

With the postal strike finally settled the mail should be back to order when our readers receive this copy of the record.

Our sympathy is extended to the postmen who feel that they are underpaid and are not offered the fringe benefits that private corporations offer.

THE HALDIMAND - NORFOLK PROJECT

The published report that a land no doubt will extend its impact as far as Hamilton, Ontario, a few of the skilled steelworkers may commute from Hamilton to the new Lake Erie Steel plant.

The Haldimand-Norfolk Planning Board, in co-operation with provincial planning authorities, will have a very serious task to do.

On the Farm Front N. S. Hadley of Purdue University, speaking at a meeting held here last week, had comments on "Farm Managements in the Years Ahead".

Review of the recent Progress Report on Ontario's Dairy shows many enlightening bits of information.
