WHALES RACE BOAT
VICTORIA, B.C. (CP)—The Northwest Hydrofoil lines which operate the hydrofoil Victoria between here and Seattle, Wash., wants someone to point out to passengers such things as killer whales, porpoises and sea lions. The hydrofoil encounters them almost every trip and clowning killer whales race the vessel at speeds of more than 40 knots.
The government sold the coin try out in order to avoid economic sanctions or military support. Dubeck said: "Besides the published documents, the conference feared no other conclusions. It was the direction of the country, not the national independence and territorial integrity had not been tampered with."

OBITUARIES
DEAN LAKEY
Dean Lakey, five-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lakey of Jarvis, was the unfortunate victim of the first traffic fatality in more than ten years in Jarvis when he was struck by a car in front of the Post Office on Main Street on Friday, August 16th.
The child started in front of the car when he was playing in the yard. He was struck by the car as it was backing up to leave the driveway. The car was driven by a young boy named Robert, who was also five years old. The car was a 1967 Ford Mustang. The driver was taken to the hospital but died of his injuries. The family is grieving the loss of their only child.
WILFRED R. EVANS
Wilfred R. Evans, 82, Hagersville, formerly of Jarvis, died on Thursday, August 22, 1968 at the West Haldimand General Hospital, Hagersville. He was a member of the Jarvis Baptist Church and the Jarvis Legion. He was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Evans, and several children and grandchildren.
MURRAY J. ADDISON
On Friday, August 16, Murray J. Addison of Jarvis, died suddenly at the age of 52. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Addison of Jarvis and lived in the area until 19 years of age when he moved to Detroit and was employed by the Ford Motor Co. in Detroit. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Addison, a daughter, Dawn, of California, two brothers, William, H. Marvare officiating. The funeral was held on Monday, August 19th, at the Jarvis Baptist Church. Burial was in the Jarvis Baptist Cemetery.

JARVIS OUSTS STONEY CREEK IN TWO STRAIGHT
John Edwards, almost single-handedly gave Jarvis Merchants a 3-0 victory over Stoney Creek in the opening game of the O.A.S.A. Intermediate A playoffs here on Sat. Aug 17. The Jarvis ace struck out 16 batters, gave up two hits, and walked a pair.
At bat, Edwards collected three of the four Jarvis hits and drove in all their runs. In the first inning Joe Clark led off with a walk, and after being sacrificed to second by Bill Fitcher, reached home on Edwards' double to right field. Then in the third inning Jarvis home run with Harry Recker on base drove in the other Jarvis runs.
