opment. Too, this week has been an indication that land on the south side of the Village is being taken up by developers. If this is and indeed, becomes a fact, we can see much activity in property development on all sides.

What does this mean? It means that, as a Village, we have to watch development in relationship to our capacity to service that development. Once we go beyond our capacity to service that development. Once we go beyond our capacity we will have to consider new capital expenditures to service this expenditures to service this content of the Board.
