

Corvairs One Game From Title

CALEDONIA Corvairs walloped Bobcaygeon 13-4 Sunday afternoon to move within one victory of the Ontario Hockey Association Junior D championship.

A crowd of more than 1,300 jammed the arena to watch the Corvairs take a 3-2 lead in the best-of-seven series with their third victory over Bobcaygeon in less than 48 hours.

Bobcaygeon won the first two games of the series on Friday night with a victory over their home ice a week ago but the Corvairs picked up a win here Friday night and then evened the series Saturday with a 6-3 victory.

Caledonia can wrap up their first OHA junior title Friday night with a victory over Bobcaygeon. If a seventh game is needed it will be played here Sunday afternoon.

Bobcaygeon appeared weary from the rugged three-day schedule of games and were no match for the Corvairs Sunday. The Ti-Cats managed to keep the score respectable for 40 minutes but ran out of gas completely in the final period as the Corvairs outscored them 7-1.

Al Lickers and Jim Parker each scored three goals for Caledonia and Bob Archer added a pair. Tom Misener, Bob Moerschfelder, Stan Wolowski, Tom Young and Dennis Davey scored the others.

Parker scored his three goals in the third period and his final goal was his 100th in two years with the Corvairs.

Murray Devitt scored twice for the Ti-Cats, with Max Kimble and Roly Nichols netting the others.

John Winegard's goal boosted the Corvair lead to two goals early in the second period before tallies by Nichols and Peel pulled the Ti-Cats even at 3-3.

Tom Young scored the winner late in the second period on an unassisted effort. Moments later Corvair defence, man Pete Parker jolted the Ti-Cats when his shot from his own blue line took a crazy bounce into the visitors' net to make it 5-3.

Bronco Serblan added Caledonia's final goal in the third period.
