Jarvis Women's Institute

The members of the Jarvis Women's Institute met on Aug. 14 for their annual Grandmother's Picnic at Haldimand County Park. The meeting was opened by the President, Mrs. Wm. Blake, with the Institute Ode, Creed and Lords Prayer and an appropriate poem.

Seventeen members and 13 guests answered the roll call. The minutes were read and the treasurer's report given. A bill was presented for the walk laid at the Cenotaph and approved after a discussion on 4-H club work, a motion was carried that we give them our usual support. Another motion to donate to the "Save the Children Fund" was also carried.

Following a discussion on ways of raising money, a motion was carried that we donate the cash equivalent to what we would give in baking at the Sept. meeting.

Mrs. Duxbury and Mrs. Stallwood reported on cards and gifts sent to the sick.

For planning entertainment for our visit to Grand View Lodge on Sept. 24, the committee was named to consist of Mrs. Earl Stallwood, Mrs. E. Harris, Mrs. Wm. Blake and Mrs. S. J. Church.

Mrs. Paul Bartlett spoke ably on the motto, "Characters Like Embroidery are Made Stitch by Stitch."

Mrs. James Duxbury dealt with the topic, "Memory is a Wonderful Treasure Chest" and led us down memory lane as she gave many interesting reminiscences from her own life. She concluded by reciting a poem by Longfellow, "Now the Day is Over."

A demonstration was given by some of the ladies modelling their oldest hats. Mrs. Smuck reported on the work being done for the display at the Caledonia Fair. All articles for the fair are to THURSDAY, August 28, 1969 be brought to the Sept. meeting.

Mrs. E. Marr and Mrs. H. Belbeck were in charge of the Fun Program which consisted of many amusing stunts and contests. Prizes were awarded to the winners. Mrs. Arthur Belbeck was winner of the mystery prize.

The afternoon came to a close when everyone enjoyed a bountiful picnic lunch.

Questions Please?

The Unemployment Insurance Commission has passed on answers to some of the questions that have puzzled contributors. Your question too can be referred to this feature for reply.

Q. What could happen to me if I do not report earnings while drawing Unemployment Insurance benefits?

A. First you would be required to pay back any benefit received above your entitlement. You might also be subject to prosecution under the Unemployment Insurance Act, or a penalty might be assessed. This penalty is for a given amount of money and must be liquidated before future benefits are paid to you. If prosecution was undertaken, you might be subject to a fine not exceeding $500 or six months in jail, or both. If in the opinion of the insurance officer your failure to report earnings was an oversight, no further action would be taken except to recover the amount overpaid.

Q. If I work part time at a local department store and receive my holiday pay each time I get paid, what do I report on bi-weekly report forms?

A. Whenever you work you must declare your gross earnings. In your case, as you receive holiday pay each pay period, this must be included. You should indicate on your report form, in the detail section, that part of your salary which is holiday pay.
