Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Denis Lloyd James

James - Lindsay

Faith Centennial United Church, Selkirk, was the setting for the wedding of Barbara Louise Lindsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Lindsay, and Denis Lloyd James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas James, all of Selkirk.

The Rev. James A. Bechtel officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with baskets of white mums and pink carnations. Mrs. Russell Hurst, aunt of the bride, was organist. Mrs. James A. Bechtel was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white lagoda. A detachable cathedral train fell from the waist. The gently gathered skirt was trimmed with guipure lace appliques as was the bodice and deep cuffs of the Juliet sleeves. The hemline and high neckline were edged in scalloped lace. Her full-length veil was held in place by a floral headpiece. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white stephanotis.

Miss Rosemary Lindsay, sister of the bride, was maid of honour. Mrs. George Saunders, of Delhi, Miss Debbie Hurst, of Port Dover, cousin of the bride, and Miss Bonnie James, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Miss Kelly McMann, of Hamilton, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. They wore floor-length gowns of fiesta pink, French velvet, styled with long sleeves and Empire waists, with a large bow accenting the back. All the attendants carried bouquets of white mums and pink rosebuds.

Mr. Ron James of Cayuga was bestman for his bride. Guests were ushered by Bill Lindsay, brother of the bride, and Mr. Rick James, brother of the groom.

A reception was held in the Cove Room of the Beach Hotel, Port Dover, where the bride and groom were travelling the bride in a blue brocade dress and the groom in a matching ensemble with matching accessories were the bride and groom. Her accessories were in patent leather. She wore a corsage of white mums and pink carnations. After a trip to Port Dover, the couple will reside in Selkirk.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at a shower given by Mrs. McMann and Kelly McMann. Miscellaneous showers were given by Mrs. George Saunders, Miss Rosemary Lindsay, R. O. Hurst was hostess of a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Debbie Hurst, David Green and Miss Drechner. She was presented with gifts on behalf of the staff of Hagersville Secondary School and the Caledonia Clippers.

Mr. Dennis was President of Federation of Agriculture when it was organized, also President of the Board of Directors of the Haldimand Co-Op at Cayuga. In appreciation for his services he received a certificate in recognition of his contribution to the development of Haldimand Farmers Co-Op.

I.O.O.F. Observe Ladies Night

On Monday evening, December 15, the members of Jarvis Lodge entertained their ladies and the widows of the departed brothers.

Mr. Russell Hare of Nanticoke, showed pictures of their recent trip to California and back which proved very interesting and educational to all present.

Following the pictures, the audience retired to the banquet room where refreshments were served followed by a social hour.

During this period, Santa appeared and he, assisted by N.G. Mae Dossier, presented each of the widows of our departed brothers with a brooch.

Mrs. Mary Marr, on behalf of the widows, thanked the lodge for the lovely entertainment and their thoughtfulness on remembering them at this time of the year.
