Port Dover Wins 7 To 3 Red Cross Holds Annual

Jarvis I.O.O.F. Bantams played an exhibition game with Port Dover on Sunday evening January 26.

The I.O.O.F. gave a good account of themselves although they were outscored 7-3. At one point in the game they were only trailing by one goal with Port Dover leading 4-3.

The locals were playing in a higher classification as Port Dover are in "B" competition and the I.O.O.F. "E". Scoring for the locals were Glen Miller, Paul McCarthy and Paul Phibbs.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Hubert Field on Monday evening with seven members and one guest present.

Lambs Corners Womens Institute

Lambs Corners Women's Institute held the January meeting at the home of Mrs. Hubert Field on Monday evening with seven members and one guest present.

The President Mrs. Russell Hare had charge of the meeting, opening with the ode. The roll call "My Pet Beef" aired a few interesting viewpoints.

Several thank you notes were read from recipients of the Christmas boxes. The 4-H leaders for the forth coming club were announced and the training school was held at Kohler January 27 and 28. A donation was approved to the MacDonald Institute Anniversary expansion fund.

On The Farm Front

A total of 59 people have registered to date for the 4-H Club members. The Junior Committee is authorized to arrange with two 4-H Club members for a two year financing of a high quality beef calf. Details will be available from 4-H Club leaders of from Russell Smith, R. R. 1, Caledonia and Grant Richardson, R. R. 4, Dunnville.

At recent meetings, the Federation of Agriculture and County Council have expressed concern about proposed Federal Estate taxes. The assumption is that the new or revised taxes would make the transition from one generation to another more difficult. It is assumed that meetings on this subject will be held before the winter is out. Those who are concerned should make a point of being in attendance.

The Haldimand Holstein Club at a recent directors' meeting planned activities throughout the coming year. Among the items proposed was a bus trip to the Annual Meeting at Toronto on February 12 for the purpose of supporting Bill Snowden as director for the National Association, a Barn meeting to be held March 1 at the farm of VanWoudenberg and a bus trip to Peel County Dairy Farms on Monday, March 17.

Among other items of business, the directors named committee to look into the possibility of holding a Club sale. This would be in place of supporting a regional sale that is ordinarily held outside the county.

A lot of time was given to discussion of cow testing through R.O.P. and D.H.I.A. The Club's Officers and Directors Consider Cow Testing To Be A Must For All breeders.
