

Jarvis Wins PeeWee Tournament

Jarvis Lions won the first annual Walpole Recreation Commission Pee Wee Softball Tournament on Saturday at Springvale by whipping Oneida 7-2 in the final game. They reached the final by bombing Fisherville "B" team 20-4 and edging Fisherville "A" 7-6 in extra innings.

In other first round games, Oneida defeated McGaws 7-0, Erie downed Springvale 12-4 and Fisherville "A's" beat Cayuga 9-8 in another thriller.

Oneida won their semi-final contest by the score of 15-2 over Erie to advance to the final.

The semi-final game between Fisherville "A" and Jarvis was by far the best game of the day.

With a 1-0 lead, Fisherville broke the game wide open with four big runs in the fourth inning and seemed to have the game won.

Jarvis, however, with a lot of fight and determination, came back and scored five runs in the fifth inning to tie the game and send it into extra innings.

Jarvis took a 6-5 lead in the top of the sixth, only to have Fisherville come back and tie it up again in their half of the inning. With two out in the seventh inning, Alan Miller singled, stole second and third bases, and scored on pitcher Alan Gowan's single to centre field.

Members of this championship team are Randy Phillips, Randy and Alan Miller, Roger and Dan Gowan, David Phibbs, Alan McKenzie, Jay Mitchell, Dennis Graham, Joe Stone and Harry Valdhuis.

Whoever you are...

Frances likes to travel. She'll be protected by OHSIP against the cost of health care she may need outside Ontario, at OHSIP rates. If she decides to reside in another province, her OHSIP coverage will be "portable". She'll remain insured for up to 4 months.

Bill is employed by a big company. After October 1st, his employer—and every employer of 15 or more employees—must join OHSIP, and every employee must belong. Bill's employer will collect and remit the premiums. Apart from this Mandatory Group requirement, OHSIP is voluntary.

Sally and John are expecting another baby in February. Sally will be able to choose her own doctor, and he'll be free to accept her as his patient. He will advise John in advance if he intends to charge more than OHSIP coverage provides. OHSIP will pay at the rate of 90 percent of Ontario Medical Association Schedule of Fees (1969)—most doctors accept this as full payment. The cost of Sally's hospital room will be paid for by their Ontario Hospital Insurance.

Albert is still working but he's not sure for how much longer. Unemployment, illness, or financial difficulties won't prevent him from having OHSIP protection—he can apply for temporary premium assistance. Full or partial premium assistance will also be available to him, determined by his annual taxable income.

Pete is receiving Old Age Assistance from the Province of Ontario. After October 1st, his present coverage from OHSIP will simply continue from OHSIP, automatically. All he has to do is wait. He knows OHSIP will be the health insurance he can count on.

Mario works for a small firm, but he'll be covered by OHSIP just like Bill. Any employer who employs more than 5 but fewer than 15 people may apply for Group coverage for his employees. Mario's boss plans to form such a Group.

as of Oct. 1st.

ONTARIO HEALTH SERVICES INSURANCE PLAN can take care of you

OHSIP is the new, standard, comprehensive plan of health insurance protection and benefits in which every resident of Ontario is entitled to participate—regardless of age, state of health or financial means—through the Government or a designated agent.

After October 1st, many private insurers will become "designated agents". Each will provide the standard OHSIP contract on a non-profit basis, at the premium rates set by the Ontario Government for OHSIP services. If you wish other services from your agent, you can arrange for them through a separate contract.

Meanwhile, if you are now enrolled in OHSIP—the existing Government plan—or in a private plan, your coverage will continue without interruption provided you continue your enrollment.

OHSIP will be the health care you can count on—from the Ontario Department of Health.

If you haven't any health insurance, you may enroll now for October 1st coverage by writing to OHSIP, 2195 Yonge Street, Toronto 7.

PRESSURE-COOKED SHORT RIBS

short ribs (1½ pounds for 4) flour
salt, pepper, paprika
fat
onion water potatoes
carrots

Cut ribs into serving pieces, dredge in flour and seasoning mixture. Heat cooker containing small amount of fat; add ribs and brown. Add water and onions. Place whole potatoes and carrots on top. Follow cooker instructions for time.

Home economists at Macdonald Institute, University of Guelph, suggest serving with a lettuce wedge and salad dressing.

Timing must be precise when using a pressure cooker. Food specialists, Macdonald Institute, University of Guelph, warn that even an extra minute can harmfully affect the quality of the food, particularly vegetables.

A pressure cooker can pinch pennies for you. Less tender and hence less expensive meat cuts can be cooked to delicious tenderness with minimum shrinkage. Nutritionists at Macdonald Institute, University of Guelph, say the loss of vitamins, minerals, and flavor is also reduced.

Mission Accomplished

"WHICH IS CLOSER — Venus or Mars?" That was the question popped suddenly over the breakfast table by a teenybopper to his unsuspecting grandfather. Anything requiring a decision at breakfast time over the first cup of coffee is bound to be a horrifying intrusion, but this question demonstrated the fact that modern youth has accepted the miracle of Apollo 11 in its stride. It is now a thing of the past — and there is truly a man on the moon. Where to next, Dad, seems to be the message.

So granddad resorted to the encyclopedia in preparation for further interrogation of a solar nature. Already the signal is that advanced research is being undertaken to make the planet Mars the next target of interplanetary exploration.

To fill in some basics about planetary distances, the information is that Venus, in Roman mythology the goddess of beauty and love, is rated an inferior planet, orbiting between the planets of Mercury and Earth. Its mean distance from the Sun, the centre of our solar system, is 66,134,000 miles. Mars is next to the Earth in distance from the Sun. Earth is 93 million miles from the Sun. But the Moon is known to be 238 million miles away. Thus the distance to Mars is relatively less. So much for facts as known today.

This, however, is only the beginning of accurate details which will be accumulated in the very near future, according to present plans.

If Apollo 11's establishment of human contact with the Moon is not man's greatest achievement, it certainly would seem to be a seemingly impossible achievement, opening the gateway to limitless vistas of space.

Complete success of the Moon landing is doubtless the result of and a tribute to the greatest single concerted effort humans have ever made.

It has been likened to the discovery of the Americas by Christopher Columbus, opening as it did an entirely new world to the civilization of Western Europe. Thus was provided, the opportunity for previously unknown social and political freedom and opportunity for the human race. There is no doubt that a rich field of exploration will occupy the next hundred years revealing vast stores of additional knowledge.

When the two astronauts planted the U.S. flag on the Moon, shortly followed by a telephone call from U.S. President Richard Nixon, it then went down in history as mission accomplished. Only the final successful return to Earth from the Moon remained to complete the modern miracle.

Counter Clockwise

War of 1812 — 1815
At the time of this war Haldimand was very sparsely settled and the few white inhabitants living along the Grand River and the lake shore had little to tempt the marauding parties from the United States. One party under the leadership of a man named Dickson plundered settlers at Long Point and Talbot Settlement of what they had. They shot captain Francis, a United Empire Loyalist, who lived at the mouth of the Sandusky in Walpole. These raiders got food and shelter from the Hoovers who being Mennonites, could not refuse food and shelter to anyone.

During the war the six Nations Indians who lived in the Brant tract did good service for Canada. The Butler Rangers defended Canada bravely. William Nelles, formerly of this county, fought in the war. Port Maitland was a naval station. Canadian and Regular British troops were stationed along the lake and they stopped any incursions of those led by Dickson.

REBELLION OF 1837-38

Haldimand played a small part in this Rebellion. Most of the few settlers took an active part in the suppression of the Rebellion Captain W. H. Nelles was one of these. Some of the settlers secretly agreed with the cause of the agitation and felt a need for change in government. Some of these were accused of raiding and a few arrests were made. However these parties were held for a short detention only and were then liberated.
