

Married At Selkirk

On Saturday, June 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude at the organ and accompanied 1969 in the Church of Christ, Nie, R.R. 1 Selkirk. The Mrs. Ben Woodruff who sang Selkirk, marriage vows were ceremony was performed by "The Wedding Prayer" and exchanged by Carolyn Mae the Rev. Ben Woodruff. "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in and Mrs. Floyd Held of Mrs. Gordon Rushton, marriage by her father, Selkirk, and James Elgin Nie, cousin of the bride, presided looked radiant in a floor-length gown of white crystal silk logoda. Guipure lace outlined the front panels and cathedral-length train. Her three-tier elbow-length veil was adorned with seed pearls and flower petals. She carried a cascade bouquet of white miniature carnations highlighted with orange delight roses and ivy.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Robert Fulson of Fisherville as matron of honour. Miss Deborah Held, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Kenneth Burchill of Burlington, sister of the groom acted as bridesmaids. All attendants wore identical floor-length gowns of orange-ice crystal silk chiffon, styled with empire waistline, accented with a tailored bow at the back. Matching daisies accented the three-quarter length sleeves and they wore matching headpieces. They each carried Shasta daisy poms with orange delight roses.

Mr. David Mehlenbacher, friend of the groom, acted as best man. The guests were ushered by Mr. Brian Cooper and Mr. Milton Hoover, both of Selkirk. Master Randy Held, brother of the bride, acted as junior usher. Master Christopher Sherk, cousin of the bride, and Master Jeffery Burchill, nephew of the groom, were ring bearers for the double-ring ceremony.

Following the ceremony, guests were received at the Community Hall by the bride's mother wearing an aqua chiffon dress with matching accessories, and a corsage of bridal pink roses. The groom's mother assisted, wearing printed chiffon and white accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses. Mr. Kerry Leitch of Preston was master of ceremonies. Amid showers of confetti and good wishes, the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Calgary. For travelling, the bride donned a white crimplene suit. Her accessories were venetian pink and she wore a corsage of pink delight roses and white feathered carnations.

On Saturday, June 21, Mrs. Floyd Held entertained at a tea in honour of her daughter, Carolyn. Mrs. Held received the guests and was assisted by Miss Deborah Held, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Madill Hoover, grandmother of the bride, and the groom's mother Mrs. Claude Nie. The tea table was very beautiful with a hand made lace table cloth made by the bride's great great aunt, and centered with pink roses and white mums. Pouring tea were, Mrs. Keith Thompson, Miss Jean Hoover, Mrs. Ross Hoover, Mrs. Milton Hoover, Mrs. Don Sherk, Mrs. Lewis Schwyer, and Mrs. Glenn Hartwick. Serving the guests were Mrs. Merrill Hunsinger, Mrs. Blake Held, Mrs. Bruce Spies, and Mrs. Russell Dennis.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nie entertained the bridal party and friend after the rehearsal.
