Superintendent Honoured

He joined the township as road master in 1936 and in 1941 he became a truck driver. In 1947 he became a grader operator and in 1949 attained the position of road superintendent, which he held until his retirement in 1969.

Mr. Williams was road superintendent of Woodhouse for 20 years and a township road employee for 33 years.

Mr. Williams expressed his thanks to all those attending he was presented with several beautiful gifts.

Alan May presented him with a life membership in the two county road superintendent's association; Fred Norman presented him with a wrist watch; John Roxburgh, a scroll; John Booth, a gift from members of the Woodhouse road crew; and Deputy Reeve William Buck, a lazy Boy chair.

Garnet U.C.W.

Members of Garnet U.C.W. gathered for their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy Smith on June 5. There were 22 present to answer the roll call with a thought on a good deed.

Mrs. North, the president, called on Mrs. L. Belton to report for the Manse committee and Mrs. C. Harrop to give a financial report on the bake sale. Plans were announced for a Haldimand-Norfolk picnic to be held in Haldimand County Park on June 10 and for an inaugural meeting of the new Presbyterian, to be known as "Erie." Letters of thanks were also read from boys of Sprucedale School who have received birthday cakes.

The program giving special thought to citizenship and social action was opened by Miss D. Roulston with a worship period in which Mrs. J. Ebert, Mrs. L. Bilton and Mrs. W. Harrop took part. The feature of the evening was a talk by Mrs. Laurence Roulston on the work with the mentally retarded. She spoke particularly of the nursery school opened for pre-school children in her home church in Etobicoke, staffed entirely by volunteers for two years, and now receiving some help from the association for the Mentally Retarded in Toronto. It has functioned successfully for seven years and is still operated by volunteers with one paid teacher and a social worker. Facilities are provided free of charge by the church. Other nursery schools have now been opened in various parts of Toronto. These aid both the retarded child and the mother.

Mrs. C. Harrop expressed the thanks of the group to Mrs. Roulston for her interesting and informative visit. She also expressed appreciation to the hostess and others taking part. Lunch was served and all enjoyed the social hour which concluded the regular meetings until September.
