

When bath tubs and other enamelled equipment turn yellow, rub with a sponge dipped in a solution of salt and turpentine to bring back their sparkling whiteness.

Rub unpainted breadboards and cutting boards with a cloth dipped in salt after they have been washed with soap and water; they'll look lighter and brighter.

Mrs. Sumner Church opened her home for the March meeting which took the form of a pot luck dinner on Thursday at noon, followed by the regular meeting in the afternoon.
Mrs. Leonard Church presided. Mrs. Robert Smuck, Secretary read the minutes and correspondence and Mrs. Sumner Church gave the treasurer's report. The committee to arrange for an exhibit at Caledonia Fair was named. Mrs. Earl Stallwood gave the report of the sick and gift committee. The founder was born in Ballymena Ireland, the youngest of nine children whose father died before his birth. An Eaton rose will be available this year.
Mrs. George Anderson thanked Mrs. Church for her hospitality and also all who helped in any way with this enjoyable afternoon.
A donation was made toward Easter Seals. The ladies voted on Home Economics services available.
The motion was carried to have nominations from the floor with Mrs. Allan Lundy to conduct the election at the April meeting. All conveners will read their reports. Lunch committee, Mrs. Alfred Marr, Mrs. Lea Porter.
Mrs. Ross Dosser convened the program giving a splendid motto, "Keep smiling, the whole world is taking your picture."
Mrs. Ben Johnson in giving the topic, "The life of a famous Irishman", chose the life of Timothy Eaton founder of the T. Eaton Co., celebrating its one hundredth anniversary. This is the success story of the century.
