

Group of ladies from the Cheapside Brethren in Christ church attended a meeting in Wainfleet. A missionary conference of more than four hundred ladies from points as far away as Collingwood, Markham, Toronto, Niagara Falls were present. The speaker of the day was the wife of Dr. Worman, on leave with her husband from a missionary hospital in Rhodesia Africa. Dr. and Mrs. Worman have been in India studying the work with lepers. Mrs. Fretz also spoke. Mrs. Fretz and her husband (formerly of Vineland) were missionaries in Brazil. Two ladies who conducted a vacation school in Simcoe during the mid-term holidays also gave a talk.

The missionary conference carries on work with Canadian Indian children at Montreal Lake camp Saskatchewan and also with the Brethren in Christ mission in India (Asia) under the name of the Child Evangelists Fellowship and will shortly hold a regional dinner in the Scottish Rite Temple in Hamilton.

The collection at the Wainfleet Women's Auxiliary amounted to $325 for furthering this project among children.

Mr. John Sider and Mr. Harvey Sider are engaged in missionary work in India.
