

Drama Club Play Poorly Attended

We wish to congratulate the members of the Jarvis Drama Club on their production of the play "Where's Grandma" but feel disappointed in the small turn out. We feel that the citizens should support the local club. The musicians included Jim Walker, Dennis Bousfield, Rick Anderson, and Ralph Doughty and Douglas McBride.

THURSDAY, May 15, 1969

Haldimand Boy Scouts

The meeting was opened with a prayer by Lieut. O'Beare, and in the absence of President Rev. John Roberts, V.C. Wm. Morris presided.

There were 28 members present representing Atterscliffe, Dunnville, Hagersville, Jarvis, Caledonia and York groups.

Dist. Com. Steve King gave an interesting report on the Annual Provincial Conference held at York University. The theme of the conference was on drug addiction amongst youths.

On June 22 to 27th 1969 there will be a Young Leaders

Training Camp at Blue Springs near Acton, special camping arrangements are made for the ladies. This camp is for leaders 14 to 17 serving in a leadership role, with cub-pack, boy scout troop, church or any other youth group. This course will be useful in helping with scouts and guides giving them also good basic training for leadership in their communities.

Second and Sixer camp to be held 13-14 June at St. Catherine WETASKIWIN camp, the charge will be $4.50 per boy, and the same price for leaders this will cover their meals. The only

Haldimand Junior Farmers

The Junior Farmers "Sugar Time Dance" was held on April 12 at Canfield Hall. Everyone there enjoyed dancing to the music of Larry Luce's Orchestra. Our new Queen for 1969 is Elizabeth Cocking. She was crowned at the dance and presented with a dozen red roses. The four princesses are Valerie Bradford, Linda Nie, Venita Nie, and Evelyn Stephens.

If anyone happens to see the rather strange sight of a boy in the kitchen, wearing an apron, don't faint, he's probably just practising for the "Cake Baking Contest." The boys will be given a chance to show their baking skills at Kohler Youth Centre on May 9. The girls will be allowed to advise but not to help them. Come and see what they cook up.

Hold Baking Contest

charge will be for the kitchen which on motion by Fred Allen seconded by George Sloate that a charge of $10.00 be paid by District Council - Carried.

Highlight of the evening was when Art Jackson, Provincial Field Area Executive, presented to Mrs. Irene Stevens and Mrs. Nell Nott their ten years service medals and pins. He spoke to attendance, and nine cakes were made.

Each boy was allowed a girl to coach him, but she was strictly forbidden to do any of the baking. As the night wore on, the boys were seen pacing back and forth in front of the ovens, and occasionally stealing a cautious peep at their cakes. When the cakes were frosted and finished, they were put on tables, and our honourable panel of judges commenced the difficult task of placing a decision, and Dean Gieney's three-layer masterpiece was selected as the best cake. He was
