At the October meeting of Past Noble Grands Club Mrs. Lizzie Howard gave a talk on a bus trip from Vancouver B.C., across the Canadian Prairies through Northern Ontario and home.

The first half of the trip through the United States to the West Coast had been narrated by Mrs. Pearl Marr.

Both ladies were very enthusiastic over this vacation and their talks proved them enlightening and were thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. Howard told of many highlights of the trip. One of the enjoyable ones was our own Northern Ontario.

Following Mrs. Howard's talk, Mrs. Edna McEwon showed slides on a western motor trip last May which were also well received.

Due to the illness of our president, Mrs. Clara Blundell, Mrs. Mary Marr, vice-president, presided.

Eileen Durant dealt with the minutes and correspondence.

Mrs. Gladys Slater gave the treasurer's report.

Mrs. Edna Church conducted the devotional using Thanksgiving as her theme.
