

Study Group Opens Offices

Two local offices for the Haldimand-Norfolk Study have been opened at the county administration buildings in Simcoe and Cayuga, according to Municipal Affairs Minister Darcy McKeough.

"An office in each of the counties will facilitate the charge of the offices."

Jarvis W.I. Visits Grandview Lodge

with Mr. and Mrs. Gary Teal. Mr. Cyril Walker has returned home from Chedoke General Hospital, where he was a patient for 10 days.

Sympathy is extended to the Martin family in the passing of a husband and father, Mr. Roy Martin.

Miss Nettie Cooper spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Walker and family. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stone of Ayr called on Mr. and Mrs. Norm Slood one day recently.

Approximately 20 members of Jarvis Women's Institute spent Tuesday afternoon at Grandview Lodge, this being the birthday month of 12 of the 103 residents. The W. I. supplied the lunch, birthday cakes and the entertainment. The Jarvis President, Mrs. William Blake, was chairman with Mrs. Evan Higgins leading in community singing and Mrs. Cecil Beckerson at the piano. Mrs. James Duxbury and Mrs. Leonard Church gave readings.

Several contests were held. The most popular one, with Mrs. Beckerson playing, was to guess the title of an old hymn. The residents rather took over the entertainment with Mrs. Ruby Wickens, recently of Jarvis, singing two solos entirely from memory. Mrs. Wickens expressed herself as entirely happy at Grandview.

Past Noble Grands

The Past Noble Grands of Silver Star Rebekah Lodge resumed their activities following the summer recess with Clara Bunnell as hostess. Thirteen members answered the roll - 'How I spent my holidays.'

Mrs. Pearl Marr spoke on her bus tour to the west coast via the United States and home by the Canadian West. Mrs. Gladys Slater gave the treasurer's report. A thank you note was read from Mrs. Dorothy Walker. Birthday recognition was given to three members, Gertrude Belbeck, Marj Mitchell, and Lizzie Howard. The mystery prize was won by Edna Church. City and surrounding areas including Salt Lake and courtesy remarks.
