Q. I worked before my marriage at St. Georges-de-Beauce and still have a job there. However, my husband and I have moved to Ste. Marie. Can I draw Unemployment Insurance benefits until I find a job in my new neighbourhood?

A. This will depend on your contribution record and a number of other factors. You will have to prove that your husband has moved permanently to the new locality, and that for obtain a social insurance card and that for reasons it prescribed form obtainable from any UIC office.

Regarding married women, You must also show that as with all other Canadians, in the new locality there are only those who have applied job opportunities in your for a social insurance card are work you are ready to accept.

Ranger Fun Weekend

Approximately 35 Rangers and friends congregated at the Niagara Area Girl Guide Camp Kienuka, which means "Place of Peace," on Friday, Sept. 26, for a weekend of fun.

The weekend was planned entirely by the Rangers of the Niagara Area which stretches from Niagara Falls to Delhi. The girls enjoyed games, which included a scavenger hunt for nature objects along the beach. Each crew did their own cooking, and was responsible for setting up and taking down their tents. Crafts included roppage armatures for the special sculpturing and making plaster wall plaques.

Saturday an Area Ranger Council Meeting was held to discuss ideas and business.

One Way To Spend The Day Off
About six o'clock Monday morning the Presbyterian Minister left Jarvis to chauffeur Mrs. M. Musclow (Mrs. Taylor-Munro's mother) to visit relatives in Powasson for a week or two. Returning Monday afternoon, Rev. Taylor-Munro's itinerary included a pause at Burke's Falls to visit his friends, Wray Craddock, Jim Cripps and others as well as an hour or two at Barrie to catch up on the family news with his sister, Olga, Mrs. Norm Rankin, and her family.

Caledonia Hit By Hagersville Hurricanes

On Friday, Oct. 3, the Hagersville Hurricanes hit Caledonia and came out on top end of a 41-0 score to take over first place in their football league.

Scout Camps Successful

The meeting of the Haldimand District Council Boy Scouts of Canada was held in the scout rooms in the municipal building in Jarvis.

Members and Scouters from Attercliffe, Caledonia, Cayuga, Hagersville and Jarvis attended.

Reports were given from district staff on cuboree and camporee both were successful.

Training will be resumed for all leaders by district staff again this year.

4-H Achievement Day

This year, a new innovation at Caledonia Fair, 4-H Achievement Day was held on Thursday of Fair week. This change proved to be very successful.

With the co-operation of the weatherman, a total of 180 4-H projects were presented for the viewing audience. This number included 71 Holstein calves, 22 mixed dairy calves, 22 beef calves, nine market lambs and 53 field crop projects.

Grand Champion animals were shown by James Parke - Junior Holstein; Ann Whaley - Senior Holstein; Bonnie Jude - Jersey; Bill Mulkins - Guernsey; June Booker - Dual Purpose Shorthorn; Larry Herod - Ayrshire; John Stubbs - Beef Heifer; Christine Kohler - Club - 4th, and the Oneida Beef Steer; and Charles Jude - Market Lamb.

The McClung Achievement Day was a tremendous success. The 4-H Showmanship Trophy was won by Ronald Gingrich - Mixed Dairy Showman. In this competition, each kickoff and moved the ball well with Warren Howe catching 2 passes to move the ball to the Caledonia 40-yd. line. From there Allan Slotte threw to Leo VanEyk for the major. Then the Hurricanes kicked off and on Caledonia's first passing play, Jack Donaldson intercepted and ran the ball in for 6 points.

Nick Pantzouri was good on the convert and the score went to 13-0. Minutes later, still in the 1st period, VanEyk caught another touchdown strike on a quick

After changing ends for the 2nd quarter, Bill Hickey's defence stalled the Caledonia offence on some fine playing by Rod Nelson and Gary Thompson. Some fine runs by Jim Cote and Nick Pantzouri of Hagersville put the ball on the Caledonia 6 and from there Allan Slotte

Soccer Team Number 1

Further satisfaction to the pupils of Hagersville Secondary School, our soccer team is in undisputed possession of first place in the group. You may bring soccer loo.

On Tuesday, Sept. 30, the soccer team journeyed to Sprucedale to play its fourth game. Hagersville won its fourth straight by the score of 5-0 and incidentally that is which is quite a feat.

One of the soccer team's smallest players, Gary Anderson, who is in his first year of high school, scored his first goal of the season on a fine play in which he kicked the ball over the Sprucedale goalie's head.

The 4-H Herdsman's Wendall Bomberry scored another one of his patented goals in the 2nd period as he moved around some of the Sprucedale players and beat their goalie cleanly.

Sandy Rulli also contributed to the Hagersville goal. Randy Curley and Keith Curley tied for first, Cayuga Hill and Keith Curley tied for 3rd, Haldimand Beef rounded out our scoring.

The 1969 4-H 4th shutout in a row which has been achieved by the fine play of the defensive players, particularly the goalie, Dan Dalimonte.

found Howard Deschryver all alone in the end zone for 2 pts. and a 35-pt. lead.

Allan Slotte hit Dave Sayer with a flare pass and ran for another touchdown. That is the way the game ended 41-0 in favour of the Hurricanes.

The Hurricanes' next game is on Friday, Oct. 10 at 3 P.M. The Hurricanes will host Dunville.
