Samuel E. MacKay
S A M U E L E L B O N MACKAY - Mr. MacKay, 73, died suddenly in the West Haldimand Hospital, Hagersville, on Saturday, Oct. 25, 1969.
Mr. MacKay was born in Scotland, Aug. 4. He had been a resident of Jarvis for many years where he was employed by the Marshall Dairy. He has no known relatives.

The funeral will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Hyde and Mott Funeral Home. Rev. G. Taylor-Munro will officiate. Interment will be in Knox Church Cemetery, Jarvis.

Gary Wardell
GARY WARDELL - It was with a sense of stunned shock that the many friends of Mr. Wardell learned of his sudden death on Fri. evening Oct. 10, 1969.

Mr. Wardell was born Aug. 21, 1947, in Hamilton, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wardell. His life ended tragically as the result of a car accident on the Kholer Road north of Rainham Centre. He had been presently employed by Livingston Industries, Hagersville, Ont.

Left to mourn the tragic loss are his wife, the former Louise Everetts, his children, Bonnie and Renne, as well as his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wardell.

Hugh Wardell, a brother, Jack, and sister, Pamela, all of Nanticoke. Also surviving are his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wardell of Selkirk and Mr. and Mrs. Adrien Ryerse who survives him.

He is also survived by his two sisters, Margaret (Mrs. Leo Mulkins) and Jessie (Mrs. James Cripps) both of Jarvis. Belonging to a musical family, Mr. Watson, with his violin, was much in demand for entertaining at local gatherings.

His great interest was in the band where he played the cornet. His genial disposition made him the friend of all who knew him.

Funeral service was at the Thompson Funeral Home, Port Dover, with interment in Port Dover Cemetery. An adherent of Knox Presbyterian Church, Jarvis, the funeral service was in charge of Rev. G. Taylor-Munro, minister of Knox Church, Jarvis.

Mrs. L. Peterson
Hostess Of Balmoral L.A.
The monthly meeting of the Community Baptist Balmoral Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Peterson with an attendance of 26.

William J. Watson
WILLIAM JAMES WATSON - Mr. Watson, 83, of R.R. 5, Simcoe, (Highway 3) passed away in Norview Lodge Oct. 23.
His long illness was the result of an injury sustained during the severe ice storm last Christmas.

He was born on the Scotch Line, Woodhouse Township. They made their residence on Con. 3. They lived on the same farm until they retired to Jarvis in Sept. 1957. He remained there until his death.

Besides his widow, Mr. Awde leaves a son, Allan Leroy of Jarvis, a daughter, Reita Eileen, wife of Martin Foster of Kendal, seven grandchildren, and two great grandchildren, a sister, Miss Minnie Awde, and a brother, Mr. W. W. Awde, both of Hagersville. Another sister, Elizabeth, wife of George Peacock of Frontier, Sask., also survives.

THE STEEL COMPANY OF CANADA LIMITED

Will hold a public meeting on Thursday, November 6th., for the purpose of providing Norfolk and Haldimand County residents with a briefing on progress to date on its projected Lake Erie Development.

The function which will be held in the gymnasium of Port Dover Composite School commencing at 7:30 P.M. will include presentations by senior Company engineering personnel, followed by a question and answer period.

Haldimand Association For The Mentally Retarded

The Association held their regular meeting Oct. 9, at the Adult Workshop in Seneca, with the president, Mr. Wm. Hoskin, in the chair.

Mr. Hoskin was a delegate at a recent Symposium in London and gave an interesting report on research planning across Canada on Adult Services. Ontario is one of the leading provinces in this field, he said.

Mrs. Ross Deagle reported on Home Care and also the tentative plans for the possible opening of a Nursery School. Mrs. Deagle also reported on a donation from Riverside W.I. who designated the donation for special treatments at the Training Centre.

The members heard a report on the complete success of the Association Booth at Caledonia Fair, on Oct. 25-26-27.

Friday evenings for trainees are proving very worthwhile, both for good sportsmanship and social adjustment. The Recreation Programme is being assisted by a newly formed Youth Group from the four Secondary Schools in the County and known as YACMRO.

At the conclusion of a very heavy agenda, lunch was served, which had been prepared by the girls at the Training Centre. This is most commendable and shows only part of the wonderful training Mr. they are receiving at the Recreation Centre under our capable Director, Mr. Brock Gains, supervisors.

Jarvis Lions Club
The meeting of Jarvis All Lions and friends are Lions Club Oct. 27th was well attended with several guests present.

Lion George Walker carried out the induction of new Lion George Miller, who was sponsored by his uncle, Lion Bob Miller.

Lion Elmo Field reported on the preparations for the Annual Remembrance Day Services. Lion Murray Fleming thanked all the members for their help at the Booth over the past summer, and said we had made a profit.

It was reported to the meeting that Lion Newt Marshall is in hospital, good wishes go to Newt for a speedy recovery.
