Artists With The Plow

"A good crop starts with a good job of plowing." This statement reminds farmers that the fall plowing season is approaching.

It also reminds plowing enthusiasts that the match plowing season is at hand.

This year the Canadian Plowing championship Match is being held in Ontario in conjunction with the International Plowing Match and Farm Machinery demonstration, on the farm of Ross Kelley, not far from Paris, Ontario. The 16th annual Canadian Championship is being staged by the Canadian Plowing Council on Oct. 16, with seven teams of two champion plowmen from as many provinces competing for the Esso Silver Plow, awarded to the top Canadian "Artist of the Plow."

Mr. Rodanz presents the Ontario Hereford Assoc. Trophy for the Best Female Bred in Ontario to the Jarvis Hereford Farms of Jarvis, Ontario, on Agriculture Day at the C.N.E.

Shorthorns At C.N.E.

The strong Dual Purpose Shorthorn herd of J. H. Atkinson, Nanticoke, won signal honors at the recent Canadian National Exhibition. Owner Atkinson was named Premier Breeder of this event, also winning trophies for the Senior and Grand Champion female, the mature Cheapside Betty 32nd, that was also named Supreme Champion of the show. This cow has been a consistent winner through the years. Atkinson also won senior and grand champion honors with his mature bull, Cheapside Futurama. Other Atkinson wins included first prize group of four.

Ross Hewitt, York, with a small entry, was near the top in all classes where shown, winning second in yearling females and reserve junior champion; third in two year females; second in three year females; fourth in four year females, and third in group of four.

J. A. Creighton & Son, Caledonia, had the winning yearling bull, Hillview Hobo, named junior champion, and second in the bull calf class. Walter Hill, Jarvis, placed fifth in the yearling bull class. This was a strong show, with seventeen exhibitors showing 89 head (last year's figures, 11 and 75).

In the Boys' and Girls' Special class, the champion heifer calf was shown by James Creighton, Caledonia, in a record breaking class with nineteen exhibitors.

Meat Loaf
 Corn-Stuffed Tomatoes*
 Crusty Rolls
 Honeyed Pears
 With juicy, ruby-red Ontario field tomatoes at the peak of quality and quantity now, serve them frequently in salads, or sliced, broiled, pan-fried, or stuffed and baked. Fresh tomatoes are always a treat, and are a good source of Vitamin C, reminds the Food Council, Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food.

For a change from out-of-hand fruit desserts, combine 1/2 cup honey and 1/4 cup lemon juice, and pour over 8 fresh pear halves (peeled and cored). Dot with butter, sprinkle with cinnamon, and bake at 350 F for 25 minutes.

Corn-Stuffed Tomatoes - a delicious combination
 6 firm ripe medium tomatoes
 1 cup kernel corn (leftover cooked corn-on-the-cob may be used)
 2 tbsp diced green pepper
 1 tbsp chopped onion
 1 tbsp butter or margarine
 2 tsp cream salt and pepper
 buttered crumbs or grated cheese
 1. Peel tomatoes, cut off stem end and scoop out seeds and pulp. Drain upside down.
 2. Sauté green pepper and onion in butter for 2 to 3 minutes.
 3. Add corn, cream, salt and pepper to taste.
 4. Fill tomatoes.
 5. Arrange in shallow baking dish. Sprinkle tops with buttered crumbs or cheese.
 6. Bake at 300 about 20 to 25 minutes.

BIRTHS!

MILLER - Libby (nee Dowsell) and Denny are pleased to announce the birth of Jennifer Lynn on Thurs. Aug. 28, 1969, at Toronto Western Hospital.

CORRECTION

We have been asked to correct a spelling error made in last week's paper. The article told of the close of the combined church services in Jarvis and welcomed Mr. George Hutchinson as speaker and Miss Gail Fugler as soloist for Sunday morning services. Miss Fugler's name was spelled as Furgler.
