Community Hall Meeting

The community hall board met on Thurs. evening in the hall. The board members complimented the custodian Warren Keen on the spick and span condition of the building. Since the last meeting of the board and Merle Elliott, approximately $1200 has been spent on maintenance and repairs. This sum includes a vacuum cleaner and supplies $404, floor polishers $354, paint $150, dishes and cutlery $225. The silver has not yet arrived. Six tables will be ordered in order to have seating for banquets and large gatherings. Fuel last year amounted to approximately $500 and will likely be nearly the same this year.

Adult Education Courses

Adult education courses attracted 1,123 people to the night classes offered last fall and winter in the four Norfolk high schools.

With the wide range of courses available, the back to school urge may be engendered by an "it would be fun" attitude to the desire to pick up a university credit in some subject.

What strikes your fancy? Interior design, or ground school for flying. Perhaps you're interested in millinery craft, sewing or dressmaking.

Then again you might like to improve your knowledge of farm hydraulics, welding, building construction, or woodwork. Or if you'd enjoy some exercise, there are physical fitness courses for both men and women.

The insurance will be improved. Local dealers have been contacted. Fenders for fuel will also be local.

The Lions Club has been considering the enlargement of the kitchen, or the board to approve plans. Ventilation is still a major problem.

"Needlecraft" New Project For 4-H Homemaking Club

The 4-H Homemaking Club project for this fall in Haldimand County is a new project entitled "Needlecraft." The Club Leaders attended two two-day Training Schools held at the Rural Youth Centre, Kohler, on September 16th and 17th and September 18th and 19th, 1969.

During this project, the club girls learn seven embroidery stitches which they embroider on two articles. They will have a choice of making a tote bag, apron, place mats or table runner for the first article.

For the second article they create their own design to embroider on an article of their choice. Elements of color and design are stressed in this project.

The leaders spent the two days reviewing the stitches and placing them on a table runner.

Clubs for this project will be held at: Canfield, Cayuga, Clanbrassil, D.&R., Dunn, East Seneca, Garnet, Hagersville, Holmes, Innan Road, Jarvis, Kohler, Lamb's Corners, Mount Healy, Rainham Centre, Riverside, Selkirk, Sim's Locks, Springvale, Willowgrove and Nelles Corners.

Any girl between the ages of 12 and 26 years is eligible to join a 4-H Homemaking Club.

Guide Outdoor Workshop Enjoyed By 34 Guide Leaders

A terrific, satisfying experience was enjoyed by thirty-four Guide leaders of all ranks, from all sections of Ontario, when they attended "Outdoor Workshop 1969" held recently at the Ontario Girl Guide Camp at Doe Lake. Representing Niagara Area were area Camp Adviser Mrs. R. O. Whitwell of Blackheath; Norfolk Division Commissioner, Mrs. A. L. Mosher, Vittoria; Delhi District Commissioner, Mrs.

D. L. Murphy, Delhi and Guide Lieutenant Mrs. J. E. Peart of Caledonia.

Have you stood in a woods at dawn and heard nature wake up? Did you visit a bog and view under a hand lens the jewel-like beauty of a plant called sun dew? Have you stopped to wonder why some beaches are sandy and some are not? These leaders did this and much more!

From Sunday evening to Friday noon, 6:30 a.m. (birdwatching) to 10:30 p.m. (stargazing) they walked, hiked, strolled, crawled, through forest, stream, bog and beach. The leaders talked and studied many subjects. Their spare time was spent swimming, and in other recreational pastimes.

One of the speakers emphasized the need for all Canadians in any walk of life to learn to use our Canadian outdoors, and find "a place to us so great!"
