Canadian Women To Compete In Cookerama

Canada will score another first when the big Canadian Cereal Cookerama takes place at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, on April 25. Twenty-five enthusiastic ladies, the finalists in the national "cooking with cereals" contest sponsored by Kellogg, are being flown from all parts of Canada to compete for prizes valued at $25,000.

It all started last October,

Prizes will consist of five all-expense paid two weeks' vacations for two at the Emerald Beach Hotel in Nassau, complete with first-class return fare on Air Canada and $250 spending money. Plus 10 Westinghouse Color TV sets and 10 Westinghouse DeLuxe Dishwashers. Every semi-finalist goes away with a prize.

G. D. Robinson, President of the Kellogg Company of Canada, Limited, whose company is sponsoring the National Cereal Cookerama, is high in his praises of the many thousands of Canadian women who, as he puts it, "still enjoy creative cooking."

when Canadian housewives were asked to participate in the national contest by submitting their favorite recipes for cooking with cereals. No one will ever know all of the painstaking care and experiment which went into the deluge of delicious recipes received and the task of judging was a monumental one.

There were recipes for everything from "Ham Balls" to "Mock Indian Pudding" and a great tribute is due to these housewives for their ingenuity. At last, however, the search for the best "cooking with cereals" recipes was narrowed down to 25 and the proud creators of these interesting recipes are now to participate in the exciting "cook off" which will take place on April 25 in Toronto.
