The Youth And Easter

By Andy Ineson

The Young People of the Wesley and Garnet United Churches flocked in crowded cars and rushed off to the Lake Shore, Why? Is it to experience the coldness of the morning? No. It was rather to deepen their Christian faith and conviction — that they gathered at the Lake shore to have their Annual Sunrise Easter Service.

Breaking the stillness of the cold morning they sang the Hymns "Christ the Lord is risen today — Hallelujah!" and to close the service — "The strife is o'er the battle done."

The Scripture was read out of the Gospel of St. John 20:1-10 by Ted Reynolds.

The Rev. Ramrattan in his brief message "Always Easter" said that we continue to celebrate Easter every Sunday and to many people it has become commonplace. But if the resurrected Lord is to become incarnate in the world then the Youth must be challenged to do and dare for the Cause of Christ; the Youth represent the best source of strength and leadership, and so must be prepared to fill adequately the roles of leadership." He continued, "The Youth of our nation represent strength, leadership and the technical knowhow, all they lack is the mellow grace of experience, but this can be supplied by parents and elders"

Upon returning to Wesley United Church all took part in the ancient Love Feast, and closed with the reaffirmation of their faith.
