Shopper's Skate-In Sandusk Carnival

Over one hundred members of the club took part in the "Shopper's Skate-In" depicting the apartments in a store.

The Carnival began with 10 strong eager pre-schoolers presenting the Toy Department. They had every heart in the arena with them as they hopped, jumping, bowing, attempting to spin and occasionally falling down. With a little persuasion they ended their routine and came off winning a large hand of appreciation.

The show included Solos, Pairs and Chorus numbers from the intermediate and senior skaters who have shown a steady improvement since taking lessons. Many skaters in the club obtained their national badge tests.

Brilliant solo performances were enjoyed by the record crowd of spectators. Cathy Ostapchuk and Brian Nelson, the guests along with the club Professional, Mrs. Joan Sherman. These top skaters executing difficult double jumps, various spins and intricate foot work.

Props were artistically done under the direction of Mr. Bill Walker. Organ Music was played by Mrs. John Almas and Rock Music supplied by Papa Graham's Cane with John Kincaid on the drums.

Master of ceremonies for the evening was Mr. Norman Crawford. Costume convenor was Mrs. Alvin Hewitt.

The club welcomes new members to join next fall when the skating season gets underway.
