Federation News

by Roy Hagan

After the annual meeting of the Haldimand County Federation of Agriculture, a frequent comment heard was the amount of business conducted. Also the number of changes that have been made in the organization. The meeting approved suggested changes in the constitution, which includes making all individual service members in the county directors of the Haldimand Federation. These will act in place of executive members who came from township organizations, which no longer exist.

The lucky draws came next. The door prize of a Gruen watch was won by Miss Gillian McNair, Dundas ticket drawn by Ches Martindale. The steer "Mr. Oakleigh," donated by Doug Kohler was won by Berni Atkinson, Hagersville, ticket drawn by Bill Gaddi in appreciation for helping to sell the tickets in his store. By the way "Mr. Oakleigh" was in attendance at the arena. The one year membership to the Mount Hope Golf and Country Club was won by Mrs. Grace Gowen, ticket drawn by Hugh Shipway. The weekend for two at Don Valley Inn Toronto was won by Mrs. Vera Crane St. Thomas, ticket drawn by Hugh Shipway. There was an electric organ donated for the occasion by Mr. Culver, Dunnville, played by Mr. Jas. Kragten Caledonia.

The refreshment booth was staffed by the Cayuga Kinette Club. So drew to a close another milestone in Cayuga history.

DOLLAR RICHER MIDLAND, ONT. (CP) - An attempted robbery at a pharmacy here left a clerk richer by $1. Mrs. Margery Mitchell was confronted by a man who asked her to change a dollar. But when she opened the till he pulled out a gun and asked for all the money in it. When Mrs. Mitchell pressed a button that brought the pharmacist from the back of the store, the robber fled with such speed he forgot to pick up his dollar.

An invitation was accepted by the members from Mrs. Nellie Miller to hold a pot luck Christmas Dinner at her home for the group on Dec. 15 at one o'clock. Mrs. Harry Belbeck and Mrs. Flora Jaques developed a very interesting topic around the hymn "Take My Life and Let It Be, Consecrated, Lord, to Thee." The ladies participated by singing verses of the hymn as required by the narrators. Mrs. Smuch thanked the committee for a very interesting meeting.

RR 3, Jarvis; Ray Crone, RR 2, Caledonia; Walter Ettiger, RR 8, Dunnville; Gordon Booker, RR 1, Lowbanks. These will form the governing body of the organization, under the direction of the individual service members. Otto Crone was elected president, Avery Evans vice-president and Bert Stam, second vice-president. The executive committee also appointed Stephenson of RR Hagersville, treasurer, who will automatically be a member of the executive committee. The meeting expressed gratitude to Ken Austin for his work in this position during the past number of years. Other members of 1971 executive will be Orlin Rittenhouse, president, and Creighton, director Haldimand to OFA.

ISM members of Haldimand elected an executive committee of six as follows: Otto Crone, RR 4, Hagersville; Avery Evans, RR 9, Dunnville; Bert Stam,

The afternoon unit meeting of the UCW met in the church parlour on Tues. Nov. 17. The group was called to worship by their leader Mrs. Robert Smuch. Mrs. Harry Belbeck was in charge of a very timely message entitled "Do We Remember?" The leader conducted the business meeting. Members were reminded of the general UCW meeting to be held on Dec. 2 at which time we will bring clothing for the bale.

NOVEMBER TEST

Children are not nearly as cruel as sometimes said. They do give their teachers the benefit of some long doubts. They begin a new term believing that the new teacher will be better than last year's; they want to believe that. For a couple of weeks any teacher can get along on a child's goodwill. But by November reality has set in. - Campbellton (N.B.) Tribune

WORTH IT

This winter tune-up business costs more than it used to but it should be done. More than one stalled car has been the cause of a serious mishap. If this can't happen to you, think on the positive side; a fully-charged battery is a lot more likely to start a car than one which is run down and it doesn't take too many service calls to pay for a new battery. You don't agree? Then maybe you'll agree that new points and plugs, retiming, etc., can save you money on gasoline. - Huntington (Que.) Gleaser.

TOO EASY

It's far too easy, for even the most conscientious driver, to lose his sense of perspective and conception of speed on a long drive at 60 or 65 miles an hour. Couple that with a sharply reduced reaction time because of boredom or weariness, and you've got a driver who unwittingly has become a hazard to himself and others. - Swift Current (Sask.) Sun

OUT OF CONTEXT

It is only normal that a minority of university students, like a minority of the general public, make fools of themselves, in emergencies. During the recent FLQ terrorism the minority groups were out of context. - Innisfail (Alta.) Province

CHANGE NEEDED

If the UN is to have any real significance as an international force to keep the peace in the atomic age, it must rearrange its format in order to purge the wilful violation of world-wide law and order. - Vernon (B.C.) News

KEY WATCHWORD

In this modern age of turmoil and major headaches, youth can no longer expect the older generation to hand them the facilities and opportunities they desire. If anyone wants to make a better world, he must be prepared to do more than talk. Involvement is still the key watchword for any kind of change. - Vernon (B.C.) News
