Around & About Cayuga

At the 11 am service at St. John the Divine, Rev. Ewing announced the flowers on the altar were placed there in loving memory of Rev. Edwin Wrightson, by his widow Nora Wrightson. This being the first Sunday in Advent, (fourth Sunday before Christmas day) it was also the anniversary of Rev. Wrightson's ordination to the ministry. Mr. Ewing said this was a great experience in a mans life. He would himself have this same experience in a couple of weeks time.

The front street is taking on a festive appearance, with Christmas lights and decorations. No brash screeching Carols! Cayuga is just it's modest dignified self.

Mrs. Ted McLeod held a Tupperware demonstration at her home Dec. 3.

The Cayuga Rebecca Lodge catered to the Haldimand Farmers Co-Op annual banquet at Kohler the evening of December 2.

Cayuga Womens Institute

by Helen Hobbs
All the ladies entered into Christmas Spirit, when they arrived at Mrs. Douglas's home for their regular Christmas Women's Institute meeting, Tues.

Thirteen members and five visitors answered the call, which was to greet the "Gift Exchange," Mrs. Wilkinson was the user.

The president welcomed present. Minutes and correspondence was read and approved. Mrs. R. Hent reported she had the Christmas Gift and, also a letter to our link England.

Mrs. Fred Matthews gave an excellent report of the Milton Area Convention, held late October, this year was enjoyed by all. The motto: "For home and unity." A thank you card is sent to the WI.

A change is to be sent to Foster Child care. Everyone signed a Christmas card to be sent to one of our members who is ill in hospital. It was passed on to send Christmas cards to out-ins and a gift basket in hospital. Mrs. J. Hammond is to look after this.

Mrs. D. Murray gave her very interesting current events report, which is always much enjoyed.

Mrs. Metcalf then read a very humorous and thoroughly enjoyable piece of poetry about the members written by Doug Murray.

The usual Christmas gift exchange followed.

The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. Meesters.

Lunch was served by Mrs. W. Last and Miss Alice Murphy. A social time followed.

Mrs. Florence Stewart extended courtesy to the hostess, program convener, and the lunch committee for a very enjoyable Christmas meeting.

DIG WELLS
TORONTO (CP) - Some of the money collected in the Miles for Millions walks in Metropolitan Toronto and other Canadian cities is being spent on new wells for villages in West Africa.

Mrs. Pat Mortimer, UNESCO project co-ordinator in Toronto, said recently. Mrs. Mortimer said that more than $23,000 has been used to relieve drudgery of native women in the Upper Volta who have had to walk up to three miles to get water from wells.

4-H Club Achievement Honors

Mrs. Russel Hare received a certificate for leadership in 4-H work on Saturday when achievement day was held at the Kohler Youth Centre.

Mrs. Hare has been a leader for 10 years having coached 20 clubs, totalling 54 girls who completed their projects, 17 of whom won "county honors" and eight received provincial honors. Seven trips were awarded through Ontario centers - Guelph, Niagara Falls, Toronto and other Ontario centers. One girl won a national trip to Ottawa.

A dance honor certificate is coming up soon for one of the Lambs Corners girls.

Miss Susan Bryce made the presentation to Mrs. Hare. The Canadian Council on 4-H clubs presents the achievement day leadership awards. Lamb's Corners WI of which Mrs. Hare is president honored her with a corsage.

ON THE MOVE

TORONTO (CP) - Large numbers of young people now travel during the winter as well as the summer months, indicating an increasing frustration with the school system, the Metropolitan Toronto Social Planning Council says. About 75,000 were on the move across the country last winter, expecting to find a type of accommodation that is non-existent, a report stated.

Knox Church Women

The ladies Aid and WMS were entertained by Mrs. G. Taylor-Munro at the manse on Dec. 1.

Mrs. Wallace Mitchell was in the chair for the Ladies Aid in the absence of Mrs. Alfred Walker who sent in her resignation.

The meeting was opened by singing "Away in a Manger." Roll was called, minutes read and a letter of thanks from the church organist was read.

The meeting was opened by singing "Away in a Manger." Roll was called, minutes read and a letter of thanks from the church organist was read.

The election of officers for the Ladies Aid follows: Mrs. Wallace Mitchell, president; Mrs. Lillian Lowes, first vice-president; Miss Frances Law, second vice-president; Miss Helen Miller, secretary-treasurer; Manse Committee, Mrs. Wallace Mitchell, Mrs. Cora McKenzie, Mrs. Florence Walker, Miss Helen Miller.

The offering was dedicated and meeting closed by the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Taylor-Munro conducted the election of officers for both groups.

WMS officers Mrs. R. A. Miller, president; Mrs. Geo.

O. Miller, first vice-president; Mrs. Cora McKenzie, second vice-president.

The WMS then convened. The president opened with an article on Faith without Works and read a letter from former public school principal Harvey Sider intimating that he would have three months furlough over Christmas and announcing that he and his family had already arrived at his father's home in Cheapside.

The secretary Mrs. Herman Fess called the roll and read the minutes and correspondence. The yearly donation to the life membership for a member of Hamilton Presbyterian was approved. The presbyterial day of prayer was announced for St. Andrews Church, Hamilton on Friday, Jan. 28.

The annual meeting of the Presbyterial WMS will be Feb. 2, 1971 at St. Andrews Church, Barton St., Hamilton.

Other letters asked for reports for the year, and a summary of books for the year, including Glad Tidings, Church Calendars. A few Calendars were ordered. The financial report was very satisfactory.

Miss Frances Law was program convener, opening with hymn "All the Way My Saviour Leads Me" followed by prayer by Mrs. R. A. Miller.

Miss Law read the story of Christ's birth from St.

Luke's gospel. Miss Helen Miller read an article on "The help of the church throughout life." Miss Law also read a very interesting story of the work of a minister, a layman with a boat along the inner channel on the west coast of British Columbia from Vancouver to Alaska. The layman being a seafaring man understood the coastal inhabitants.

Blest be the tie that binds was sung followed by the Mizpah Benediction.

Mrs. Lloyd Mitchell will be hostess for January. The food sale and lunch followed. Mrs. McKenzie thanked all who helped.
