July Meeting Mary Edith Group WMS

The July meeting of the group was held in the church hall with Mrs. Lesley Carpenter as hostess and Mrs. Edith Keen in charge of the program.

Mrs. Murray Biggar, vice-president was in charge of the meeting which was opened by a scripture verse. Mrs. Carpenter read the nature lesson taken from Matthew 5:1-20. Mrs. Royson then led in prayer. The roll call was then given containing the word "love." The financial report showed a good balance on hand. A donation from the Holy Ho Club was acknowledged.

During the business session it was decided to put quilts on hand, into the auction to be held next Friday evening at the church. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. Keen with Mrs. W. Campbell in charge of the program.

Mrs. Murray Biggar read an excellent article entitled "The Man Who Stood Alone." Mrs. William Laidlaw read a poem on "Friends and Mrs. William Campbell contributed a thought provoking article entitled "Why."

The Hostess and helpers served tasty refreshments. Mrs. E. Keen gave the courtesy remarks.

Not Enough Attention

VANCOUVER (CP) — Unwed fathers don't get enough attention from social workers and community service agencies, a Children's Aid Society official here maintains.

"We're trying to provide services for the fathers too", says Don Jarvis, head of central services for the CAS here. A statement of "fathers' rights" should be included in the Children of Unmarried Parents Act, he says.

The act is out of date and more unwed fathers would assume more responsibilities if they had more legal rights, he claims. Many have serious problems which social workers until now have tended to ignore.

"Some decide they have to drop out of school, get married and support their future wives. Often these are bright kids and we offer to find a temporary home for their babies until they've finished their education."

Anne Fahrig, supervisor of CAS' unmarried parents' section, says: "We only see one father for every four mothers."

Lamb's Family Reunion

The Annual Lamb Family Picnic was held at the Haldimand County Park on July 12, with over 100 in attendance.

As well as local members of this pioneer family, for whom Lamb's Corners was named there were relatives present from Hagersville, London, Mount Forest, Sarnia, Hamilton, Caledonia, and Spring Field.

All enjoyed the fellowship of meeting together at dinner and supper. Officers elected for next year were: President, Cameron Thomson, First
