Cayuga Speedway

Merrill Stearns NELLES CORNERS, ONTARIO - Jim Rudolph of Ransomville, N.Y. took advantage of a third lap multi-car tangle to catch the leaders napping on the restart, and walked off with his first Modified-Sportsman Feature of the season here at Cayuga Speedway Friday evening.

second, ahead of Dav VanValkenburg and Larry Fuller, with Bob Reichel fifth.

Jim Dunham of Brantford took the lead on the eighth circuit of the 20 lap Mini-Stox go, and went on to win his fourth Main event of the season here. Doug Sutton, Jim Ruddy, Bill Held and Larry Anthony followed.

Rudolph, a top runner here for the past few seasons, won his only other career win here last year in sensational fashion, as he crossed the finish line on three wheels, amid a shower of sparks and spinning cars. Chuck Boos, one of the leaders caught napping on the restart, ended in second, followed by Ron Williams, Pete Hayes and Roger Treichler.

In the 20 lap CAN-AM TQ midget Feature, Bruce Bolitsky of Waterloo, Ontario, ended in victory lane for the first time here this season, in a hard fought battle with second place finisher Larry Glaser. Rookie Bob Martell, after leading the first eight laps, took the checker in third, followed closely by Hugh Armstrong and Pete Post.

In the 15 lap Late-Model test, Jim Laughing of Ransomville, N.Y. led from the start, followed closely by Norm Forbes of Lockport, N.Y. Jim McGraw of Grand Island, N.Y., was running a tight third, as the flying trio took the white flag, indicating one lap to go. Suddenly, the two leaders, spun their cars onto the infield grass, giving the lead, and the win, to McGraw, his first ever. Ralph B. ok ended in Boos and Bill Brainard were the heat winners in the Sportsman division, with Merv Treichler the victor in the consolation.

The Late-Model qualifying winners were Laughing and VanValkenburg and the Mini-Stock victors were Held and Dunham.

George McIntyre and Glaser won the TQ midget qualifiers, with Armstrong the consi victor.

Cayuga Speedway To Play Host

Merrill Stearns NELLES CORNERS, ONTARIO - On Friday July 31, Cayuga Speedway will play host to the largest field of the East's fastest Modified-Sportsman drivers ever assembled, when the 100 lap "Trenton Qualifier" will get under way on the Hi-banks of the beautiful 5/8 mile paved oval, often referred to as "Canada's only Super-Speedway."

Heading the impressive list of chauffeurs is the newest sensation of the raceways, young Geoff Bodine from Chemung, N.Y., who after only two years in the Sportsman ranks, has several feature wins, and just two weeks ago, raised the eyebrows of the racing critics by leading all but 20 laps of the

A $7,500 total purse will be up for grabs when the green flag starts the evening's events at 8 p.m. with the exciting CAN-AM TQ midgets, followed by the qualifying events, and then the 30 car start of the cecentury grind, with $1,000 to the winner.

HIRE A STUDENT LETHBRIDGE (CP) - The Canada Manpower centre at Lethbridge reports 1,100 applications for jobs were filed by students during a one-week hire-a-student blitz. Job opportunities from employers have been slow to come in, however, a spokesman for the centre said.
