Summer is the time to take advantage of fresh vegetables and light, easy meals.

A fresh beet salad is suggested by the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food as a colorful accompaniment to dinner or focal point of lunch.

For the dressing, you need: 1 cup salad oil, 1/2 cup vinegar to taste, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 1 medium-size onion, 5 or 6 whole cloves. Shred onion with cloves. Bake onion at 350 degrees until it is tender. Cool. Remove and discard cloves. Chop onion fine.

Thoroughly mix oil, vinegar, salt, pepper, dry mustard and chopped onion. Shake well before serving.

For salad: The beet salad calls for - 3 cups cooked, fresh beets cut in julienne strips, 1 hard-cooked egg finely chopped, onion dressing, lettuce leaves.

Toss beets and egg with onion dressing to coat thoroughly. Serve on crisp lettuce leaves.

A main dish using leftover meat and cucumbers calls for: 2 tablespoons cooking oil, 1 sliced onion, 3 tomatoes cut in small pieces, 1 tablespoon pimento pepper, 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1/2 cups leftover meat cut in cubes, 4 medium-sized cucumbers, 1 thinly sliced small onion, 3 sliced carrots, 1 cup bouillon or meat stock.

Cook one sliced onion in cooking oil until tender. Add tomatoes, pimento, garlic, salt and pepper, parsley and cubed meat. Cook for 10 minutes.

Peel cucumber, cut in half lengthwise. Remove seeds and fill each half with the cooked meat mixture. Tie the two halves together.

Arrange the sliced onion and carrot in bottom of greased casserole dish. Place stuffed cucumber on top, cover with bouillon and cook at 350 degrees for 30 to 45 minutes. Serves 6 to 8.

Menu Of Week

Marinated round steaks, barbecued buttered asparagus, B-B-Q Cheese aspic*, baked rhubarb.

The Ontario Food Council, Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food reminds you that June is Dairy Month, and a nice way to celebrate is with a good-tasting, economical cook-out menu. Done to a turn on your camp stove or barbecue, marinated round steaks and fresh Ontario asparagus never tasted better. Then by simply adding a tangy tomato aspic full of flavorful cottage cheese, you're ready to take on all appetites. Cottage cheese not only ensures the excellent nutrition obtainable from milk products but is guaranteed to please weight-watchers in the crowd. Add it to make the menu complete throughout the summer ahead.

B-B-Q Cheese Aspic* 3-oz. pkg. lemon-flavored gelatin, 1 cup boiling water, 1 1/2-cup can tomato sauce, 1 1/2-cup dash of vinegar, 1 1/2-cup dash of pepper, 1 1/2-cup Worcestershire sauce, 1-cup cottage cheese.

1. Dissolve gelatin in boiling water.

2. Pour into 3-cup or individual molds until firm.

3. Unmold on greens. Serves 4 to 6.

When buying Ontario greenhouse cucumbers, look for fresh, firm cucumbers that are well shaped, bright green in color with whitish tip or white lines, and smooth skins. To retain the crisp texture and full flavor, home economists, Macdonald Institute, University of Guelph, advise storing cucumbers in a cool place but not in the refrigerator. The cucumbers should be used within a few days.

Cucumber can be served peeled or unpeeled, but if served with the skin on, taste it first as the skin may be bitter or strong. If the cucumber itself taste bitter, cut it in half and rub the two ends together until all the milky fluid has been worked out.

Leftover meat makes an inexpensive but tasty stuffing for Ontario greenhouse cucumbers in this recipe from the Food Department, Macdonald Institute, University of Guelph.

Stuffed Cucumber - 2 tbs. cooking oil; 1 onion, sliced; 3 tomatoes, cut in small pieces; 1 tbs. pimiento pepper; 1/2 tsp. garlic powder; 1/2 tsp. salt; 1/2 tsp. pepper; 1 tbs. chopped parsley; 1 1/2 cups cooked left-over meat, cut up in cubes; 4 medium-size cucumbers; 1 small onion, thinly sliced; 3 carrots, sliced; 1 cup bouillon or meat stock.

1. Cook one sliced onion in cooking oil until tender. Add tomatoes, pimiento, garlic, salt and pepper, parsley and cubed meat. Cook for 10 minutes.

2. Peel cucumber, cut in half lengthwise. Remove seeds and fill each half with the cooked meat mixture. Tie the two halves together.
