Hedges Jonathan

Oshweken Baptist Church was the scene of a wedding ring ceremony Oct. 3, 1970 when Evelyn Jonathan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Hedges, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hedges were united in marriage. Rev. Morikawa officiated. Miss Carol Wright was the bridemaid. The groom was accompanied by Mr. Gary Woodward. The bride wore a white gown with high neckline and yoke, complimented by French illusion veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of red roses and white carnations. Attending the bride were Joan Johnson friend of the bride as maid of honor, Judy Montour and Mary Gill, friends of the bride, bridesmaids, Vernice (Pats) Jonathan, sister of the bride, as Junior Bridesmaid. They wore A-line gown, lime green chiffon and taffeta with wide sashes held with bows at back. They carried bouquets composed of yellow stephanotis. Tina Austin, niece of the bride was flower girl wearing identical gown as the bridesmaids and carried a basket of yellow stephanotis.

The groom's friend, Mr. Clause was the best man. The ushers were Ken Button, Hamilton, friend of the groom, Roger Jonathan, brother of the bride and Walter Douglas, cousin of the bride, both of Oshweken. Billy Hedges, Nanticoke, nephew of the groom was ring-bearer. The reception was held in the hall of the church for guests followed by a dance in the community centre, Hagersville.

Receiving the guests, the bride's mother chose a piece jacket ensemble of pink crimpoline with pink accessories and corsage of pink roses.

The groom's mother wore a gown of fuchsia crimpoline with matching feather and black accessories. The corsage was of white carnations.

For a honeymoon trip to Ottawa, Morrisburg, Rochester, N.Y. the bride changed to a purple crimpoline pant suit with matching black and black accessories.

Pre-nuptial showers were given by the ladies of Oshweken Baptist Church. Mrs. Gary Garlow, Jonathan and Patsy Jonathan, Mrs. William Hedges and a community shower at the parish hall, Nanticoke. They are now residing on the Lake Shore Road, R.R. 2 Nanticoke, Ontario.

Memorial Services At Hagersville

HAGERSVILLE - Special memorial services and parade Sunday marked memorial day for service men that died in Canada's wars.

Under the leadership of Omar Phillips, parade marshal, seven color parties took part in the parade along with some 75 veterans, Hagersville Cadet Corps, Boy Scouts, Girl Guides, Cubs and Brownies. Color parties on parade were the Hagersville Legion, Port Dover Legion, Teeterville Legion, Oshweken Legion, Boy Scouts, Girl Guides and Hagersville Cadets.

Rev. Martin Rule conducted a short service at the Legion Hall and Ted Brooks, president of the branch, laid a wreath.

At the cenotaph Rev. Clayton Warriner led the prayer of invocation, Rev. Donald Eustace, a prayer and the Lord's Prayer.

Rev. Andrew Thompson gave the address.

The last post was sounded by Andy Sabola as well as reveille. Lament was played by William Lawrence.

Benediction was said by Rev. Rule.
