It has been suggested, rather than cut out the coupons and maybe destroying a valuable one on the next page of The Record, to bring the complete paper with you to the store.

In this issue you will also see interviews of some of the public figures of the village in a projected view of expected expansion of the municipality as well as glimpses of the past, many special pictures and features.

The Record as well as all the merchants are offering special values during the duration of the sale from October 29 until November 7.

Special coupons worth $1.50 on each subscription to The Record may be obtained from any participating store.

The parade of values being offered in a co-operative effort by Hagersville merchants will speak for themselves if you go through their advertisements in this issue.

You will also see your strength and vitality by getting out and taking advantage of the values now instead of waiting until it gets closer to Christmas.

MacLeod - Demaiter

A pretty fall wedding took place on Friday October 16 in Sacred Heart Church Langton, when Agnes Jeannette Demaiter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Demaiter of Langton became the bride of R. Robert MacLeod. In the absence of the grooms parents, they were represented by Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Brown of Clear Creek. The Reverend J. Hollerhead performed the ceremony.

The bride, escorted by her father, entered the church wearing a floor length white peau de soie gown with Swedish lace trim. The short train fell from the natural waistline. The bride attendants were, matron of honour Mrs. Mary DeCioet of R.R. 1, Glen Meyer, sister of the bride, and Miss Rosemary Demaiter, Walsingham, cousin of the bride, and Miss Marilyn Brooks, as bridesmaids. Their gowns were styled identically of rose polyester crepe, accented with white velvet ribbon and were floor length.

The groomsmen were Frank D'Hondt, R.R. 1,

Glen Meyer, as best man and ushers Brad Brown of Clear Creek, and Gerard Demaiter, brother of the bride, also of Clear Creek. Guests were present from Markham, North York, Toronto, Bothwell, Peterborough, London, Princeton, Tillsonburg, Simcoe, Delhi, and Clear Creek.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honoured by showers given by Mrs. MacLeod, and Miss MacLeod.

Anniversary Services At Nanticoke United Church

The anniversary services at Nanticoke United Church were a source of inspiration to all who attended. A number were present at both services.

Mr. G. Arnold Creaser minister and guest speaker the Rev. Philip Smith, former minister now residing in Galt, Ont., were in the pulpit.

The theme of Mr. Smith's sermon in the morning was "The Impossible You". Special music by the choir was under the leadership of the organist, Mrs. Robert Doughty. The solo "My Prayer" was sung by Mrs. Ernest Welt.

Mr. Creaser welcomed many visitors along with the local congregations and conducted both services.

As his evening theme Rev. Smith chose, "Please Open the Door," and message in song by the Singers Quartet and accompanist, was very much enjoyed.

Following the service the church basement for an enjoyable time of fellowship. The ladies of the church served refreshments.

UNICEF Drive

Pupils from Jarvis Public School will be out collecting for UNICEF, Friday, Oct. 30 from 3:30 - 5:00 p.m. This is one occasion in the year when children of our community can help others of their own age in less fortunate countries.

The pupils will be assigned set routes so you will be canvassed by only one pupil. We would appreciate your support in this worthwhile work.
