

Skillings - Banfield

Baskets of mauve, cream and yellow gladioli and candlebras decorated the Nanticoke United Church for the wedding of Sharon Louise Banfield daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Banfield of Nanticoke and Thomas William Skillings son of Mr. and Mrs. William Skillings of Innerkip.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Martin Rule of Hagersville assisted by Mr. Dickson Bailey of Dundas. "Each for the Other" and "The Ring" were sung by Mrs. Molly Marr and Miss Anne Doughty accompanied by Mrs. Elsie Doughty at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and chose a floor length gown of imported crystal-line crepe. A full length train fell from the waistline. The high neckline, three quarter length sleeves, waist and train were trimmed with crocheted French lace. Her head-dress of liv of the valley and rosettes gathered together to form a four tiered silk illusion shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses.

Miss Linda Donaldson of Nanticoke, friend of the bride was maid of honour, Miss Diane Banfield, sister of the bride from Nanticoke and Miss Donna Skillings sister of the groom from Innerkip were bridesmaids. All wore identical floor length gowns of mint green polyester crepe. A-line styled and high rounded neckline with princess seams and a wide sash worn above the waistline held in place by mauve and green rosebud trim.

Miss Katherine Banfield, junior bridesmaid, sister of the bride wore a floor length mint green polyester crepe dress with bell set sleeves high waisted and trimmed with mauve and green trim.

Miss Kimberly Atkinson of Hagersville cousin of the bride was flower girl. She wore an identical white dress.

Larry Gordon Banfield brother of the bride, from Nanticoke was the ring bearer.

Mr. and Mrs. Skillings

Mr. Cliff Littlejohns of Innerkip friend of the groom performed the duties of best man.

Ushers were Mr. Bruce Skillings of Innerkip brother of the groom and Mr. Donald Banfield and Mr. Douglas Banfield of Nanticoke brothers of the bride.

The reception was held at Nanticoke Community Hall. The bride's mother received guests in an imported pink antron lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of white and pink roses. Assisting her was the groom's mother wearing a blue lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

A wedding dance following the reception entertained guests from Woodstock, Innerkip, Toronto, Hagersville, Hamilton, Caledonia, Selkirk, London, Hickon, Port Dover, Jarvis, Nanticoke and Mt. Bridges.

For travelling the bride chose a mauve chiffon dress trimmed with white daisies and an accordion pleated skirt. She wore a corsage of white roses. After a honeymoon in Northern Ontario the couple will reside in Innerkip.

Showers were held by Miss Linda Donaldson, Mrs. Elsie Doughty and Miss Anne Doughty, Mrs. Pat Gillespie and Miss Mary Ellen Robley and communities of Nanticoke and Innerkip.

West Haldimand Hospital Committee

The executive met for the first meeting of the fall season in the Board Room on September 9. Mrs. Helen Brown, chairman, welcomed all and the Auxiliary Prayer was repeated in unison.

Mrs. A. Snowden read the minutes of the June meeting followed by the treasurer's report by Mrs. P. Turner.

Mrs. Betty Martin gave the coffee shop treasurer's report. Mrs. R. Martin having resigned this position, Mrs. B. Martin agreed to act in the capacity of coffee shop convener and coffee shop treasurer. Many thanks to Rita for a job well done.

The coffee shop's new look will soon be complete. The committee has put the space to every advantage and have done a well planned project. Ice cream facilities will also be available in the near future. Coffee shop groceries will now be ordered daily from the cafeteria by the evening volunteer shift, thus eliminating local stores in the need to deliver small orders. Order forms will be available.

Mrs. H. Snowden reported that crystal ball plans are progressing favourably. The Earl Ray orchestra has been engaged for our annual November event.

Mr. H. Mehlenbacher, library convener stressed the need for children's book of any description. A suggestion the unit meetings could have a "Bring A Children's Book" for roll call was well received. Mrs. Mehlenbacher will purchase a magazine subscription for use in the hospital. Each year a different magazine will be added, thus building up reading material for patients.

Mrs. H. Held, volunteer convener reported that the coffee shop will be closed Thanksgiving Day, October 12.

Mrs. Brown announced that the bursary for nursing has been awarded to Miss Marlene Downie, who is now in training.

The unit chairmen reported that all were starting a new fall season with meetings this month which included work nights for the Caledonia Fair Bazaar. A Right House Luncheon Show and a Luncheon is served in the afternoon for Jarvis and Cayuga Units, respectively. Watch for these dates in your local papers.

Hagersville Unit is again organizing for winter card parties.

Mrs. Brown then asked for one member from each unit to help with Christmas decorating in the hospital.

The season will soon be upon us.

Correspondence included: The fall conference of district 4 to be a Tea, held in the health room of the Douglas Memorial Hospital, Fort Erie at 2 p.m. on Thursday, October 8. Sargent Nichols of the R.C.M.F. will be guest speaker with "Drugs" as his topic.

The Hospital Auxiliaries Association of Ontario's Diamond Jubilee Convention will be held at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto, October 25-28. The Honorable Thomas L. Wells, Minister of Health will be the banquet speaker.

The plans for our bazaar at the Caledonia Fair are moving along smoothly with much enthusiasm among our members. Stop by at our booth and you may purchase mitts, aprons, baby sets, Christmas stockings, tea towels, and pillow cases as well as many other items made by our talented volunteers. All proceeds from these articles and the draw for the quilt and money dolls will support our hospital in need of equipment.

The meeting adjourned to meet again October 7 at 1:30 p.m.
