

The Meaning Of A Hospital

Most of us could give more thought to our hospitals. If we did, we would be less despondent about the future of our way of life. The hospital is one of the great institutions our civilization has produced and one of its most eloquent expressions. We seem to be too close to it to see what we have created.

We are close indeed, for the hospital was not created alone by the professionals who staff it, or the governments who pay for it. In every community where a hospital stands, the people, through the voluntary, unpaid, Board of Trustees, or Governors, have an intimate say in the operation of it. Volunteers, work in it, and for it.

Look down the darkening corridors of the centuries. It is not so long ago that the physician had little help in ministering to the sick. Apart from him, there were few who had the necessary skills. As our civilization grew and ripened, as its philosophy matured, more of peoples devotion came to be directed toward helping the sick.

The churches opened the first hospitals, and it is to their credit that they are still operating hospitals and missions. Later private organizations and charitable institutions began to help.

It was an important step when the medical profession became more intimately associated with hospitals. It introduced the idea of true professionalism. Many hospitals were excellently operated by the time the 20th century was advancing. Because more demands were made upon them and because of rising costs, another powerful stream of civilization came to their aid - the governments, both provincial and federal.

All these efforts became possible through the pressure of public opinion, for it is part of our philosophy to care for the sick and the lame.

There is still much to be done, for it is not enough in the view of our hospitals to cure the sick. The ultimate goal is to prevent illness and ensure the people the greatest possible degree of wellbeing, physically and mentally.

It is to this end that the hospital is striving and deserves your support.

Play At Cayuga United Church

by Helen Hobbs

"A Man For All Seasons" was presented to a house at the United Church Cayuga on April 4 by The Company of Pilgrims of the Religion and Theatre Council of Toronto. It was a 70 minute non-stop performance (which is something of a feat in itself) centering around the last nine years of the life of Thomas More (1526-1535). Henry VIII having no son to succeed him, wanted his marriage to Catherine of Aragon broken, the required Papal sanction.

More was caught between his political loyalty to the Crown and his spiritual loyalty to the church. More was doomed. Charges of high treason were brought against him, and he was sentenced to be hanged, executed, on the day of execution, Henry changed his mind and had him beheaded instead. This is the time in English history when the church in England broke with the church in Rome.

The play is a dramatic example of the folly of the divine right of kings, and also points up the error of one man having too much power in his own hands.

The play was presented and enjoyed by all.

Tea was served in the church hall following the performance. The Company particularly wanted to see young people interested in drama and joining the Council (combining theatre and religion).

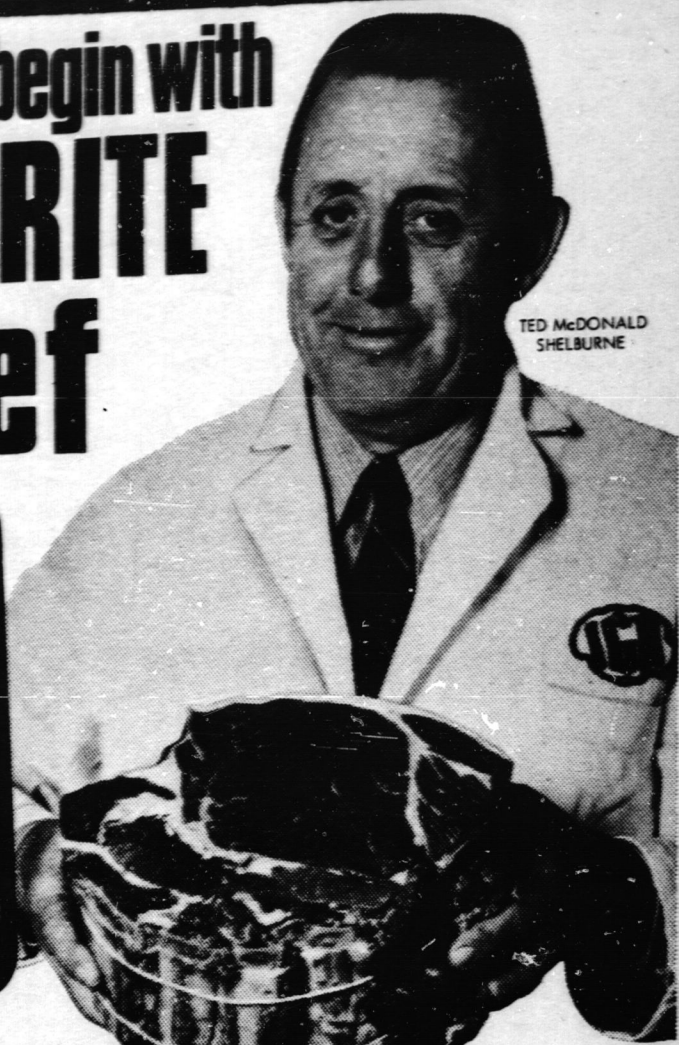

The Company of Pilgrims is the official acting arm of the Religion and Theatre Council, and this marks the third time they have come to Cayuga.

Founded in 1955, the company has performed hundreds of churches in and around Toronto and as far away as Timmins, Montreal. Director of the company is Blanche H. well known and respected theatre work.

Those who are interested in drama or joining the company may obtain further information by writing Religion and Theatre Council, 171 College Street, Toronto 130.

The Anglican Church Women held their monthly meeting on April 7 at the home of Mrs. Harold Reece with the President, Mrs. Harry Sumner in the chair. Roll call showed 12 members and one visitor present.

Social services: Four little helpers cards sent (preschoolers) by Mrs. Sumner. Mrs. Reece sent out seven get well cards last month. We all signed cards for Mrs. Agnes Reeves, Mrs. Fannie Cartright and Mrs. Bert Carter.

New business: The make believe bake sale letters will be sent out by the end of April. We were reminded again of the May rummage sale. June 8 is the annual Haldimand County Deaneys meeting. Cayuga was the local chosen this year. Our auxiliary is to provide refreshments. It was learned that Judge Kinnear bequeathed a goodly sum in her will to each of the three village churches, St. Stephen's, St. John's and Cayuga United.

The ACW Diocese of Niagara will hold their fourth annual meeting April 15 in Christ's Church Cathedral, Hamilton. The three delegates from our group are, Mrs. Charles Parsons, Mrs. Earle Dytte and Mrs. Harry Sumner.

One of our local girls, Stephanie French, sent a congratulatory card to Prime Minister and Mrs. Trudeau, and received the following message from them:

Dear Stephanie: I want to thank you for the pretty card with its message of good wishes that you sent us. Mrs. Trudeau and I were very happy to receive it.

REVERSED TREND TORONTO (CP) - More than twice as many medical students today plan to be family physicians instead of specialists as five years ago, the executive director of the College of Family Physicians said recently. Dr. Donald Y. Rice said that in 1965 approximately 30 percent of students in Canada's medical schools planned to be general practitioners. This year, he said, there has been a dramatic change away from the specialties.

Arigo's Bill Symons, Carol Comisso, Miss Canada, and wrestling's Whipper Billy Watson happily join young Dennis Lapalme Canada's 1971 Timmy, in putting their best foot forward at the Ontario Crippled Children's Center in Toronto during the current Easter Seal Campaign. Both Bills will be with Timmy during the April 17 "Walk-a-thon" in Toronto while similar walks will be taking place on the same day in many communities throughout Ontario.

Federation News

by Otto Crone
 On April 1 Roy Hagan came a full time farmer and will be spending more time on his tractor and less with a pencil. During his time as secretary-fieldman he earned the respect of farmers in Haldimand county and many outside. He always kept himself informed on things that could affect farmers and often went beyond the call of duty to be of assistance.

We are pleased to announce we have acquired, for the position of secretary, a young Oneida farmer's wife, Mrs. Harmene Sytsma. Mrs. Sytsma is an honor graduate student of Cayuga Technical and Commercial high school. In her senior year she received the 'Outstanding Commercial Student of the Year Award.' Mrs. Sytsma has held positions of responsibility in the business world, in Hagersville and Don Mills, and therefore is capable of assisting with the affairs of a growing organization.

To contact the Haldimand Federation of Agriculture write Mrs. Harmene Sytsma at RR 3, Hagersville, or phone 768-3961 between 1 p.m. and 2 p.m.

As the busy spring season draws near, remember 'Safety Pays' and 'Always alert, never hurt.'

The footbone's connected to the headbone.

Think about it. When you play tennis, you wear tennis shoes. When you walk, you wear good walking shoes. And when you work you wear proper footwear for comfort and protection.

Take a good look at your shoes. Make sure they're not getting run down at the heel. Change fraying laces. And check the soles to see that they're in good condition. Sure footwork begins with proper footwear.

INCREASED LOANS REGINA (CP) - The Saskatchewan Economic Development Corp., a Crown corporation, provided loans worth $16.8 million in 1970 compared with $13 million in 1969, the company reports.

OFFICE PLANNED TORONTO (CP) - Toronto welfare recipients will get their version of a "store front" law office in August. The office, backed by a $47,500 federal health and welfare department grant, will be staffed by Osgoode Hall law students and a community organizer.
