The April 12 meeting had full attendance as usual, thanks to the excellent meals we enjoy, plus well planned meetings.

It was moved that we send a donation for a blind child to attend summer camp at Lake Joseph. It was announced that the zone rally will be at Victoria on April 28.

Our next meeting will be on Friday April 30. This will be the annual ladies night which is our way of thanking our wives for all their hard work in helping us during the year.

Lion Murray Walker read Lions Information No. 25 regarding "Our Community Image." Every Lions Club depends upon the people of its community for support. Its prime asset is the good will of the citizens who do not belong to the club, but whose opinion of the club and its work can be a factor in the status of Lionism in the village and district.

The committees were named for our annual Victoria Day celebrations which start Saturday with a dance. On Sunday there will be a chicken barbeque, and Monday, the parade, ball games, rides, teen dance, exhibits, fireworks, and draw.

The meeting date will be set later and will likely be an evening session early in June.

The program centered around the story of the "Empty Tomb." Mrs. Charles Powell, program convener read a timely and entertaining story by Gregory Clark taken from a recent Toronto Telegram entitled "Ode to Spring" which showed the fickleness of the human mind.

Scouter-Guider Evening

The Cayuga Scout Hall was the scene where leaders in the scouting and guiding fields in Haldimand met together April 4, 1971. This evening was the outcome of a scouter-guider conference held at the Blue Springs Scout Reserve which was attended by Miss Pat Petracea of Hagersville, commissioner for Haldimand, and Mrs. G. Elliott of Caledonia, program adviser for Niagara Area.

When the leaders first came, folk singing was led by Mr. Gary Parkin. Some leaders from both organizations took part in a "Leader's Own" - an inspirational service, not based on a particular religion, that emphasizes the common spiritual ground shared by all members of the scouting and guiding movements.

Following coffee, the leaders were divided into groups to discuss whether or not there are areas where the two movements could work more closely together. It was felt that it would be beneficial to both organizations to understand each other's programs better. Also, in some areas of badge work, a resource person could come and speak to both the girls and the boys.
