

On The Green

by Ruth & Roy Hagan

There have been comments from readers of this column expressing their interest in some of the rules of the game of lawn bowling. This week it would seem that rule four, "starting the game" would be of interest.

Starting The Game — (1) Trial Ends. Before start of play in any competition, match, or game, or on the resumption of an unfinished competition, match, or game on another day, not more than one trial end each way may be played. Each player is permitted to play two bowls only in each direction. (2) Tossing for opening play. The captains or skips in a team game shall toss to decide which side shall play first, but in all singles games the opponent shall toss, the winner of the toss to have the option of decision. In the event of a tied end (no score) or a dead end, the first to play in the preceding completed end shall again play first. In all ends subsequent to the first the winner of the preceding scoring end shall play first. (3) Placing the mat. At the beginning of the first end the player to play first shall place the mat on the centre line of the rink, lengthwise, the back edge of the mat to be four feet from the ditch. (Where ground sheets are in use, the mat at first and every subsequent end, shall be placed at the back edge of the sheet, the mat's back edge being four feet from the ditch. (4) The Mat and its replacement. After play has commenced in any end the mat shall not be moved from its first position. If the mat be displaced during the progress of an end, it shall be replaced as nearly as possible in the same position. If the mat be out of alignment with the centre line of the rink it may be straightened at any time during the end. In all subsequent ends the back edge of the mat shall be not less than four feet from the ditch, and on the centre line of the rink of play. (5) Stance on the Mat. A player shall take his stance on the mat, and at the moment of delivering his bowl, shall have one foot remaining entirely within the confines of the mat. The foot may be either in contact with or over the mat. Failure to observe this rule constitutes foot-faulting. (6) Throwing the Jack. The player to play first shall throw the Jack. If the Jack be thrown to a distance less than two yards from the opposite ditch, it shall be moved out to that distance and be centred.

Winners of last weeks Jitney were: Ladies high—M. Wilson with two wins and 23+2 points; Second high—E. Stoddard with two wins and 20 points. Mens high—R. Hagan with two wins and 21 points; Second high—C. Parson with two wins and 21 points.

"EXECUTIVE" BABIES LIKELY TO THUMB-SUCK

Canadian dental scientists showed that babies of executive or professional parents have the highest rate of thumbsucking.

The group of University of Toronto scientists working on a 19-year study of children through the Burlington (Ontario) Orthodontic Research Centre, also found that there was a definite relationship between the prevalence of sucking habits and (1) the father's occupation, (2) the number of children in the family, and (3) the duration of the weaning period.

The sucking habit did not vary much among the children grouped according to age and racial origin of parents, order of birth, schedule or demand feeding, or the degree of the child's appetite.

Children of executive and professional families showed the highest rate of thumbsucking — 55 percent. Those of farm families had the lowest rate — 28 percent. The remaining groups showed a median rate of 39 percent. These included salesmen, skilled and unskilled labourers, white-collar workers and self-employed persons.

Haldimand 4-H Delegates Return Home

Haldimand's Manitoba 4-H delegates, Liz Creighton, Alice Harvey, Diane Vanderburg and Don Smith have recently returned from a 10 day stay in the western province. The delegates lived on farms in southern Manitoba and therefore learned much about western farming. The majority of the farms had usually beef or swine, however, crops such as rapeseed, buckwheat and sunflowers were grown as cash crops. The majority of the 4-H clubs in this area either had beef or horse projects. While living on these farms the delegates were aware of the greater distance between their neighbors and therefore the more isolated and quiet type of life. However the hospitality shown to the Ontario delegates was very warm and provided an atmosphere which made this trip an enjoyable as well as an educational experience. Funds for the delegates' transportation was provided by local sponsors. They were Oneida Plowman's Association, Royal Bank of Canada Hagersville Branch, Springvale Women's Institute, Zone 3 Sheep Breeders, Fisherville Veterinary Clinic, Master Feeds, Nelles Corners Women's Institute, Haldimand Holstein Club, Dry Lake Saddle Club, Caledonia Agricultural Society, Royal Bank of Canada, Fisherville Branch, Lynch Brothers Ltd., W. J. Heaslip, and Haldimand Cream Producers. The delegates wish to express their appreciation to these organizations, businesses, and individuals who have made this worthwhile venture possible.

New Telephone Books Soon

New telephone books for old will be arriving in most households and places of business in Jarvis beginning Aug. 17.

Bright decorator colors of blue and green will again this year carry the invitation to "Please Look in the Book" on the new telephone directories.

Designed to encourage telephone users to check on telephone listings in the directory before calling directory assistance, the books provide a handy "dictionary" on the telephone and its services, said Bob Munro, Bell's manager for the Jarvis area.

According to Mr. Munro, almost 70 percent of the calls to directory assistance operators last year were for numbers already listed in directories. Cost of providing directory assistance service continues to grow.

In 1970, cost of providing directory assistance was many millions of dollars. Operators' salaries alone were nearly $10 million. These costs must eventually be reflected in the cost of service to customers, Mr. Munro said.

Along with alphabetical listings, the introductory pages contain specific numbers for operator and directory assistance, repair service, business office, long-distance directory service, local calling areas, information on how to make both direct-dialed long-distance calls and those requiring the assistance of an operator.

For the first time the Brantford-Woodstock telephone directory will include Rural Routes in the Locality Guide of the introductory pages. This was introduced as a result of difficulty customers have encountered in obtaining telephone numbers for rural route addresses

More than 108,000 copies of this directory will be distributed this year in this territory, an increase of 10,500 copies over last year's distribution, Mr. Munro noted.

He added that a pocket-sized Personal Directory for keeping a list of frequently called numbers is available without charge from the business office.
