Garnet UCW

Christmas meeting of Garnet U.C.W. was held

Walpole

The phase two report issued sometime next week. W.C. Evans said the council had approved a plan for the planning area of just the city of Haldimand but they won't accept a recommendation that we are flying in the air. We had made a recommendation that we with Norfolk in a planning area, it would have been accepted," Coun. Nie

Evans asked if the council would be restructured into four or five wards, and if it would be a political move. Deputy-revee Meehan said the idea of running the wards was a full time job.

Evans asked if it makes sense to incorporate Walpole and Hagersville as one municipality? Is it going to be better or worse? I don't know, the minister would have to change if everyone agrees to keep the presentation as it is even if regional council decided to have two representatives.

Evans said he was pleased to see the presentation as it is even if regional council decided to have two representatives.

The President, Mrs. Cherry, welcomed everyone and read a poem "Let There be Songs." Hymn No. 50 was sung followed by prayer. The Roll Call, a Christmas verse was well responded to. Church calendars are now on sale. It was moved by Mrs. Bruce Meehan and seconded by Mrs. Emerson Phillips that we prepare Christmas boxes for the boys at Buffalo Lodge, and to be handled the same as last year, having everything in by Dec. 19.

Mrs. Jim Burgess and Mrs. Glen Cherry reported on the cost of purchasing trays and silver for the kitchen, and it was moved that the committee named are to buy same. We were reminded that this is the month for our Penny aprons.

The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William McMurphy at 2 p.m. We moved to give $50 more than our allocation this year towards the missionary and maintenance fund.

Mrs. Jim Ebert, program convener, led in a Carol sing, and reading "The Christmas Carols Annual Meeting." The theme of the Worship was Star of Bethlehem, the Scripture taken by Mrs. Walter North. A drama entitled "Twelfth Night" was taken by Mrs. C. Graham, Mrs. C. Harrop, Mrs. J. Burgess and Mrs. J. Ebert, after which we were favored with one of the favorite Christmas songs "Star of the East" by Mrs. W. Harrop, and another poem "God's Gift."

At the conclusion of the worship service, all members entered in an impressive candle lighting ceremony, while we were told of the different kinds of light in the world.

'Anne' A Hit For SLT

by Mae McLeod

Anne of the Thousand Days, Simcoe Little Theatre's second production of the 25th season, a historical play of the 1500s was well produced, for which the director, Bill Emmott deserves a lot of credit.

Anne, played by Sandra Fielding, was good; she brought a sincerity of feeling to the part that made for reality. Her role called for many and varied emotions but she handled them all well showing lots of spirit in her final hour.

Henry the Eighth, played by Bryan Jones, had long lines to deliver but I felt he fell short in portraying real anger or real tenderness, resulting in a number of the potential lines being lost. He was more at home with his lines that called for just being a rasal.

The gowns, loaned by the Stratford Shakespearean Festival Foundation, added much to the production in sophistication and authenticity.

This Play made one aware that the fickle traitor "infatuation" is always trying to lure one's affections under the name of Love, and is sometimes successful, but never takes its place.
