HAGERSVILLE Highlights

Play Proceeds To Band

Many parents, friends, relatives, and others interested in local drama, attended the hilarious comedy, "Calamity Kids" on Wednesday, Dec. 8. Jarvis and District Drama Club presented the three-act play in the auditorium of the Hagersville Secondary School.

Dedication Service

The Communion Service at the Hagersville United Church on Sunday morning, Dec. 5, was largely attended, and during the early part of the Worship, a dedication of great significance was held.

Oliver Sayer, Clerk of Session, and minister Rev. Martin Rule took part in a ceremony of dedication for the new Display Cabinet and book stand, presented by the Board of Session of the Church.

These are situated in the vestibule of the church, and the cabinet holds many items of interest pertaining to the 100th Anniversary of the Church, which took place in October 1969.

Former Student Speaks At HSS

HAGERSVILLE - John Racher, who is now a bacteriologist at Henderson Hospital and a recent science graduate of University of Guelph, returned to Hagersville Secondary School last week to address a Grade 12 Environmental Science class.

His topic was "Common Organisms in Food Poisoning" in which he described the causative organisms, their symptoms and medical treatment.

John then outlined several vocations, the qualifications required, and possible employers in the field of microbiology. Some of these included applied soil, dairy, food and water microbiology as well as quality control and sterility checks in the manufacturing of drugs.

Annual Party

The annual Christmas party for employees and wives of Heaslip Motors, Main St., S., was the usual great success. Greeting guests at the door of the Canadian Legion Auditorium on Saturday evening, Dec. 4 were Clayton Heaslip and Peter Heaslip. A buffet supper was served at 9.30 p.m. the 75 in attendance.

Supplying the evening entertainment was V. Mountford of Brampton who had his familiar songs and jokes to delight all, as well as having other guests in his troupe, each pleased the audience. Music for dancing later in the evening was supplied by the Mountford entertainment.

Federation News

by Otto Crose
The 1971 O.F.A. convention has come and delegates from all over Ontario gathered at the Sheraton Connaught Hotel in Hamilton to take a long look at agriculture and to improve its future.

Britain having joined the European Common Market, our preferred trading position will disappear as they will draw more heavily for their needs on other countries. Considering this coupled with the barriers of a U.S. surcharge, are we being locked out of our traditional markets?

Hagersville WI Entertains

On Nov. 30, the Hagersville W.I. held its regular meeting to which they had invited the Jarvis, Ohsweken and Garnet District President and Secretary. Guest speaker Mrs. Earl Jamieson, of Ohsweken, told of her last summer's trip to the A.C.W.W. convention held in Oslo Norway. This was illustrated by pictures and she showed many souvenirs brought back from this world gathering.

Mrs. Jamieson had travelled through Norway at the close of the convention and gave a word picture of the geography, industries, education, vegetation, employment, handicrafts and history of this country of jagged coastlines and deeply cut fiords.

Touching on the world delegates, she cited Mrs. Zoeller, president of Canadian Women's

Hagersville Library News

The holiday season can be hectic and tiring, even though we all look forward to Christmas. Perhaps one of the best ways to relax and "get away from it all" is to curl up with a good book for an hour or so.

Here are some of the new titles by popular authors that you can find at the Hagersville Public Library: Pierre Berton, The Last Spike; Daphne Du Maurier, Not After Midnight; Arlene Hale, The Season of Love; Alfred Hitchcock, Presents Stories to Stay Awake By; Victoria Holt, The Shadow of the Lynx; Emilie Loring, Forsaking All Others; Frank A. Smith, Detectives Are Dead Men; John Wainwright, Dig the Grave and Let Him Lie; David Westheimer, Lighter Than a Feather; and Dennis Wheatley, The Ravishing of Lady Mary Ware.

PNG Party

Nineteen members of the club enjoyed the traditional Christmas dinner at the dining-room of the Explorer Inn, Dec. 2, after which the December and revealing of 1971 Capsule Friends with a gift exchange was held at the home of the president, Nellie Miller.

The devotional centred around the Christmas Story. The singing of carols with Lizzie Howard at the organ was conducted by Evelyn Brown.

President Nellie Miller and Secretary Eileen Durant dealt with the business at hand. Treasurer Gladys Slater gave a report on the sale of tickets on the "Colonial Girl Quilt." The lucky ticket winner was Mrs. Emma Winters, Simcoe. This draw was made at Silver Lake Rebekah Lodge, Port Dover at which time the Vice-President of the Rebekah Assembly was visiting in the district. The proceeds from the sale of these tickets are to help defray expenses for the Installation Staff of Silver Star Lodge and the District Deputy President Dorothy Walker, throughout the district on various lodge duties.

The club presented D.D.P. Dorothy Walker with a gift in recognition of her leadership throughout the term, and she, in appreciation to her Installation Staff, gave each member a photo of the staff.

The club is proud to announce that Lizzie Howard has been invited to be pianist at the opening of the sessions of Grand Lodge, Toronto, in June, 1972.

The January meeting will be held at the home of Nora Fleming, with Edna Church and Viola Smelser as the committee.

Edna Church moved a vote of appreciation for an enjoyable evening, especially the hostesses.

St. Andrew's Bazaar

Those attending the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Christmas Bazaar found it to be most beneficial for pre-Christmas shopping. The tea, used toy sale, home-baking, novelty items, was held in the basement of the Church, Main St. S., on Friday Dec. 3, beginning at 2 p.m.

TELL-TALE TRAIL WINNIPEG (CP) - Two youths who knocked over tombstones in a churchyard forgot about a fresh snowfall and police tracked them right to their door.
