Highlights

Police Pay Talks

Hagersville Municipal Offices has been selected for an arbitration hearing on the association 1971 wage demands for the village's three-man police association. The meeting is scheduled for Jan. 24, after the police association asking for arbitration last May, following three months of negotiations.

Honor Choir Member

Nearly 20 attended the get-together for Senior Choir members of the Hagersville United Church on Thursday Nov. 25. The social evening was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Loon, Railway St. After a brief choir practice to prepare special

Missionary Speaker

Special guest speaker at the Hagersville Baptist Church, Main St. N., on Sunday evening was Ruth Dryden, R.N., a missionary from Bolivia.

Mrs. Howard McBride introduced Miss Dryden, who was born in Moncton, N.B., and later moved to Western Canada. She departed from Toronto for Bolivia in 1961, and has served as both a nurse and a teacher on the Bolivian Mission Fields. Her commentary and colored slides on the customs, living conditions, etc., of Bolivia proved most worthwhile to the large gathering which attended.

Special choir anthems were rendered by the mixed choir of the Church, with Mrs. Ray Elder directing, and Paul Simington as organist. Mrs. Mabel Waterman supplied organ accompaniment for the hymn-singing, and the service prelude.

Following a benediction offered by minister of the congregation, Rev. A. England, a social time completed the evening. The program proved most interesting to a group of Grade 6 students from Northview School, who are studying Bolivia in their Social Studies.

Brownies Ceremony

The enrolment and Golden Bar ceremonies were held for the First Brownie Pack at the I.O.O.F. Hall recently. Brown Owl, Mrs. Lois Gordon and Tawny Owl, Mrs. Jack Hedges assisted in the ceremonies, after which the guests joined the Brownies for several games. Those present were invited to look at the

Legion Party

The usual large crowd of parents, grandparents, friends and children attended the 21st annual Christmas Party at the Legion, Branch 164. Supplying the afternoon entertainment on Sunday Dec. 12, was local amateur talent.

Pianist for the occasion Mrs. Ruby McCarroll, while Mrs. Joan Nixon and Mrs. Molly Smith led the audience in the singing of Christmas songs and carols. Master of ceremonies was Alton Esselment, who welcomed all to the program.

Extending a welcome also, and seasons greetings to all, was president of the branch, Ted Brooks. Those supplying the entertainment were: Sharon Ebert, several accordion numbers; Kim and Brenda Bowen, tap dance selections; Karen Esselment, Brencia McKellar, singing; Michael McCarroll, piano solos; Cindy Smith, Brenda Smith, singing; Edwina Best, accordion arrangements and Wery Miaskum, from Moose Factory, who played the guitar and sang.

Santa Claus visited, and distributed gifts and treats to all children eight years and under.

Brownie Test Work, and the interest badge work. A special thanks was offered by Cathy Millett to the families visiting for this special Brownie occasion.

Beautiful Amaryllis

A beautiful specimen of the Amaryllis plant may be seen at the home of William Awde, 19 Sherring St. S., Hagersville. Atop the giant 24 inch stalk, are four great red blooms, with each measuring over eight inches in diameter. Mr. Awde for a great many years has been known for his hobby in horticulture, and people from great distances have travelled to see his various flower gardens at the peak of their blooming seasons.

The bulb for this giant amaryllis plant was purchased in a local store, Mr. Awde said.

Hold Banquet

The annual Christmas Banquet and Dance of the Local Union of Livingston Wood Industries, and Canadian Gypsum was held Saturday Dec. 4. A large crowd attended the happy function, held in the Jarvis Community Centre, where the ladies of the Rebekah Lodge catered to the turkey dinner.

Master of ceremonies, was R. Mayor, and J. McCool, local representative, extended thanks to the ladies for the meal.

Music for dancing was supplied by Don Leatherdale's Orchestra, and winners of the spot dance were Mr. and Mrs. J. Peterkin.

Campaign Over The

Executive Officers of the Hagersville District Charities Campaign report they have exceeded their 1971 target of $6,500. Total receipts collected were $6,760, and since all the work is done on a voluntary basis, the only expenses incurred were approximately $160 for postage, stationery and printing. The remainder was allocated as follows:

Haldimand Institute for the mentally handicapped, $1,550; Salvation Army, $1,200; Children's Society (Haldimand), $1,000; Canadian Red Cross, $700; Canadian Health Association, $500; Canadian Arthritis Rheumatism Society, $500; Multiple Sclerosis Society, $500; Canada 200 and St. Ambulance, Ontario
