A very pleasant evening was spent on Dec. 11 at the Summer Gardens in Port Dover when John and Keith McBurney of the McBurney Transport entertained their drivers and their wives at a dinner and dance.

During the evening the McBurneys presented Wesley McKeen and his wife with a mantel clock in appreciation of his services for the past 25 years. Congratulations to Wesley for 21 accident free years of driving with the company. Thirty ladies gathered at the Stone Church hall on Thursday to enjoy the yearly get together of the two missionary groups of the church.

The president of the evening Auxiliary opened the meeting with a Christmas meditation entitled "Only a Manger." The hymn It Came Upon a Midnight Clear was sung after which the Lords

Prayer was repeated in unison.

The Scripture lesson from Luke 2 was given by Mrs. Lawson Campbell, after which Mrs. Douglas Martin led in prayer. Mrs. John Lightfoot gave a reading "The Priceless Gift of Christmas."

Mrs. Hubert Lint introduced Mrs. Reta Montour of Hagersville, who had many Christmas floral arrangements set up and demonstrated the making of them.

A trio consisting of Mrs. Leslie Fess, Mrs. Charles Garvie and Miss Louise Lint sang two numbers during the evening.

Mrs. Lloyd Rutherford gave words of appreciation to those contributing to the evening's entertainment. Mrs. William Campbell, on behalf of the Senior group, thanked the members of the Evening Auxiliary. Rev. Taylor-Munro pronounced the benediction. Two hampers of gifts were given, to be donated to the Adult Opportunity School at Cayuga.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Best and daughters were guests at the Rynance-Nagel wedding held at Trinity Lutheran Church recently.

Mrs. William Laidlaw has returned to her home after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Sandy Schwyer at Cheapside.

Henny Rynsoever and Louise Williams of Toronto spent the past weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rynsoever.

Mrs. George Waterhouse and Michael Shaboluk of Hamilton spent Saturday at the Keen home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robins of Wellandport were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Best.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pond of Dunnville were recent guests at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. William Lint and Mrs. J. W. McBurney.

Knox Afternoon Group

Mrs. G. Taylor-Munro was hostess to the Christmas session of the Ladies' Aid and W.M.S. on Dec. 6.

The Ladies' Aid was opened by the president, Mrs. Wallace Mitchell, who read a Christmas Carol followed by prayer. Joy to the World was sung. Helen Miller read the minutes, called the roll and read the financial statement, which included a cheque from the Couples' Club as Ladies' Aid share of the proceeds from the Anniversary supper. This cheque will be presented to the Board of Managers toward the closing and tiling of the former driveway at the south of the church.

Christmas cheques to various deserving church workers were approved as in former years. The offering was received and dedicated and the meeting was closed with Mizpah Dedication.

Mrs. R. A. Miller then took the chair with Mrs. Herman Fess as Secretary for the W.M.S. The president opened the meeting by reading the letter of Greetings sent from India by Rev. Harvey Sider, which was passed around so that the ladies might see the pictures on the printed page.

This was followed by prayer, roll call and minutes as well as correspondence. The Presbyterian Record for December was mentioned, attention being drawn to Rev. W. H. Fuller's section of Carols and the article quoted by Gordon Sinclair "Take Christ from the Manger" and make him the sturdy figure that he really is. The cup of cold water that he advocated is the symbol of concern for the poor and deprived.

Frances Law convened the program calling on Mrs. Fess to read "The Road to Christmas." The hymn "Away in a Manger" was sung and Miss Law led in prayer. Miss Miller read from St. Luke The Christmas Story, with Miss Law reading the story of the Savior's birth - to become ruler in Israel - a beautiful story interspersed with readings from Luke 2 and the singing of "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear."

Miss Law continued reading from scripture. Law continued her closing with a poem, "Ann of a Sand Days" on Dec. 10. Mr. Walter U.C.W. Christmas meeting on account of the weather.

The Messengers held their Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. William Bray on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Gage and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dennis on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Cooper and girls were supper guests of Mrs. William Bray on Saturday.

Dale Werner of Western University, London, came home Sunday evening after the Christmas holidays.

Jarvis WI Meets

Christmas cheer through the Lions Club. The roll call, How to help a needy or senior citizen at Christmas, was well answered.

Mrs. William Blake then took the chair as program convener. In dealing with the motto, she quoted Zechariah, Chapter 8, 4-5-6. "And the streets (of Jerusalem) shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets." This was a splendid talk interspersed with Christmas hymns with Mrs.

Summer Church at the piano. Mrs. Blake conducted a contest won by Mrs. Smuck.

Mrs. J. A. Duncan demonstrated Christmas decorations made from nylon net and Mrs. Blake read a poem Christmas Magic. Mrs. Dosser moved the vote of thanks.

The January meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Earl Stallwood with Mrs. Harry Belbeck and Mrs. George Swing as lunch committee.

Cheapside UCW

The U.C.W. of Cheapside United Church met at the home of Mrs. William Crawley on Thursday for their Christmas meeting with an attendance of 17 ladies and the minister, Mr. Creaser.

Mrs. Harold Nie, the president, opened the meeting with a Christmas meditation and prayer followed with the singing of the Christmas carol, "As With Gladness Men of Old."

The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Ivan Whitford. Several items of business were discussed and a committee appointed to look after the New Years party.
