

Walker — Weidendorf

Lorraine Gayle Weidendorf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weidendorf, RR 5, Simcoe, became the bride of James Wayne Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, Port Dover, in Knox Presbyterian Church, Jarvis, with Rev. Granville Taylor-Munro officiating.

Mrs. Bruce Miller presided at the organ and her daughter Barbara Miller at the piano, playing Theme from Love Story during the signing of the register.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of peau de soie with sheer overlay, styled with high neckline, accented with daisy trim on the front of the gown and the sleeves. Her shoulder length veil was held with a headpiece styled with daisy trim and her bridal bouquet carried out the daisy theme.

Mrs. Richard Matthews of Port Dover, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, bridesmaids were Mrs. Bernie Dawtrey, sister of the groom, Mrs. Chester Hinatsu, and Junior Bridesmaid Miss Karen Matthews, niece of the bride. They were attired alike in mauve polyester crepe jump suits, with multi colored overskirts in aztec design and carried baskets of matching flowers.

Mr. Chester Hinatsu of Port Dover, was best man. Ushers were Al Misner of Kitchener, Kevin Walker and Dwight Walker, brothers of the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Jarvis community Centre for 145 guests.

When Mr. and Mrs. Walker left for their

Mr. and Mrs. James Walker

honeymoon the bride wore a white and navy blue hot pants outfit with red accessories.

Prior to the marriage the bride was honored at a number of occasions including a shower at the home of Mrs. Bernie Dawtrey, Simcoe. Mrs. Byng Lundy and Mrs. Ron Lindsay gave a shower at the home of Mrs. Fred Lloyd. The staff of Dover Wood School gave a shower at the home of Mrs. Robt Thorton in Simcoe.

There was also a presentation by the Knox Church Choir.

Mrs. Paul Weidendorf gave a trousseau tea at her home.

The couple will be taking up residence in Windsor. Out of town guests were present from Hanover, London, Hamilton, Toronto, and Florida.

Haldimand Girl Guides

Girl Guides from Haldimand enjoyed a week of camping at the Niagara Area Girl Guide Camp Kienuka. Since the camp is located on Lake Erie, the girls could enjoy swimming with qualified supervision in good weather.

The Guides on the Haldimand campsite also enjoyed a hayride one evening, dancing, and learned basket weaving from Mrs. Gawley of Blackheath.

Staff for the camp included Mrs. Roland Horn of Caledonia, commandant; Mrs. Harley Hawn of Dunnville, Miss Mary Mellish and Mrs. Stan Turl, both of Caledonia. Junior Leaders were Betty Fenyes of Dunnville and Wendy Kramer and Joan Wardell, both of Hagersville.

While camping, as with other Girl Guide activities, the girls use Baden-Powell's Patrol System for work and play. Just as they share in the fun, they share the work. Each day a girl has responsibilities, whether it be to cook for her patrol, keep up the supply of wood and water, or sanitation. The Guides also learn tent care and pitch, look after, and strike their own tents.

Attending camp from Hagersville were Wendy Rawcliffe and Kim Sommerville; and from Selkirk Patty Green; as well as Debbie Adkinson, Mary Lynne Spellar and Rhonda Winger from Cayuga.

Selkirk Personals

Twelve families from the Selkirk Ontario Settlers Camping Club were among the 30,000 camped at the Conservation Park in Brantford at the First International 12th Annual Convention of the NCHA. The SOS Club entered a float in the mammoth parade held Thursday night through downtown Brantford.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smelser and son from Toledo, Ohio visited with Mrs. Alice Martin last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Phibbs and Todd called on Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stone and children at Chapeau on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reynolds and family were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Reu and family. Mr. George Reu of Jarvis accompanied the Reynold's family.

Master Robbie Reu is holidaying in Brantford with his cousin.

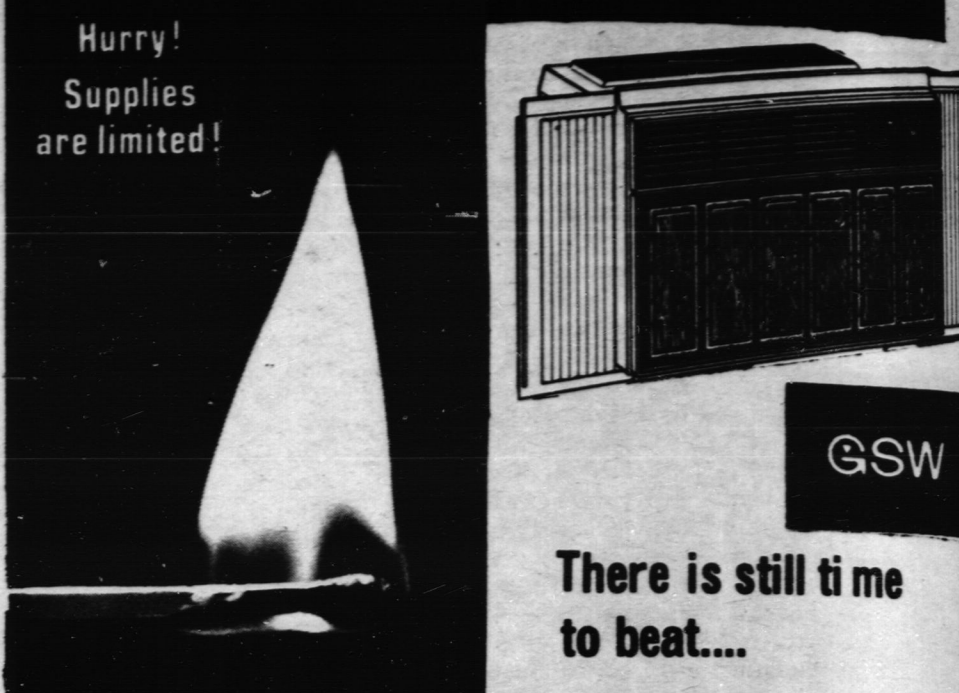

Miss Chantel Stuyver is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fehrman while her parents are holidaying in Ottawa and Montreal.

The SOS Campers held a campout at Grand Oaks Park in Cayuga the past weekend.

END PROGRAM
TORONTO (CP) — Ryerson Polytechnical Institute will end its six year old experiment in year-round classes after this year because of low summer enrolment and an anticipated increase in operating costs. "We just weren't getting the enrolments we hoped to get," said registrar Al Wargo.

Lamothe — Winger Vows

On Saturday, July 3, 1971, Kathryn Louise Winger and Garland Louis Lamothe exchanged marriage vows in Springvale United Church, amid a shower of yellow mums, white daisies, white glads, and yellow roses.

Conducting the ceremony were Rev. M. Rule and Rev. Dawson.

The bride looked lovely in a floor length empire line dress of polyester crepe, with covered button back closing. The long cuffed sleeves were also accented with covered buttons. Her floor length veil was imposed completely of lace and delicately graced her face as it enhanced her hair and formed a long flowing train. She wore white slippers and carried a bouquet of yellow roses adorned with white ribbon.

Attending the bride as maid of Honor, was her sister, Elinor. She wore an empire line gown of green silk with puffed sleeves. The waistline was accented with a long sash, forming a bow in the back. On her head, she wore a white hat with a large floppy brim.

The bridesmaids, Linda

Johnson—friend of the bride, and Carol Lamothe sister of the groom, were dressed identically to the maid of honor, as was the usher girl, Sherry Bell—sister of the groom. They carried white baskets of daisies and yellow roses, and wore gold bracelets, gifts from the bride.

Acting as ring bearer was Philip Winger, brother of the bride. He carried a large yellow mum adorned with white ribbon.

The best man was Gordon Winger, brother of the bride, and the ushers were Ben Cestra—cousin of the groom, and Ken

McKee—brother-in-law of the bride.

During the ceremony, Mr. Sayer of Hagersville, officiating "Walk Hand in Hand," the Wedding Prayer, and "because," accompanied by Rev. Glen Winger at the altar.

A reception was held for 80 guests, in the church basement, catered to by the Springvale United Church Women.

The mother of the bride escorted the guests in a flow ensemble, consisting of a crepe dress and lace hat, with white accessories. She wore a crystal necklace with matching earrings and corsage of talisman roses.

Assisting her, the mother of the groom wore a blue crepe ensemble accented with white accessories. Her outfit was complimented with a spray of pink roses.

THE WEEKLIES SAY...

IN PRAISE OF SUMMER

Humid, eh? The query is customarily put by someone mopping his brow, a look of stoic suffering on his face. We are being invited to condemn the summer heat and the weather man. He can't arouse agreement of sympathy from this writer. After last winter we took a solemn oath never again to complain about summer heat, humidity, thunder showers, dandelions, sunburn, mosquitos, picnics or crying children at the beach. Bless 'em all! — Campbellton (N.B.) Tribune

IT'S REGRETTABLE

It is regrettable that the federal government has closed down the road building program here this summer. Not only will it mean a long delay in the completion of our new Trans-Canada route to Moncton, but it will mean the loss of work for large numbers of college students who have been employed on the project each summer. We would hope it will be only for one year, despite rumors that the shutting off of federal funds for road building may extend into 1973. — Campbellton (N.B.) Tribune

UP TO MUNICIPALITY

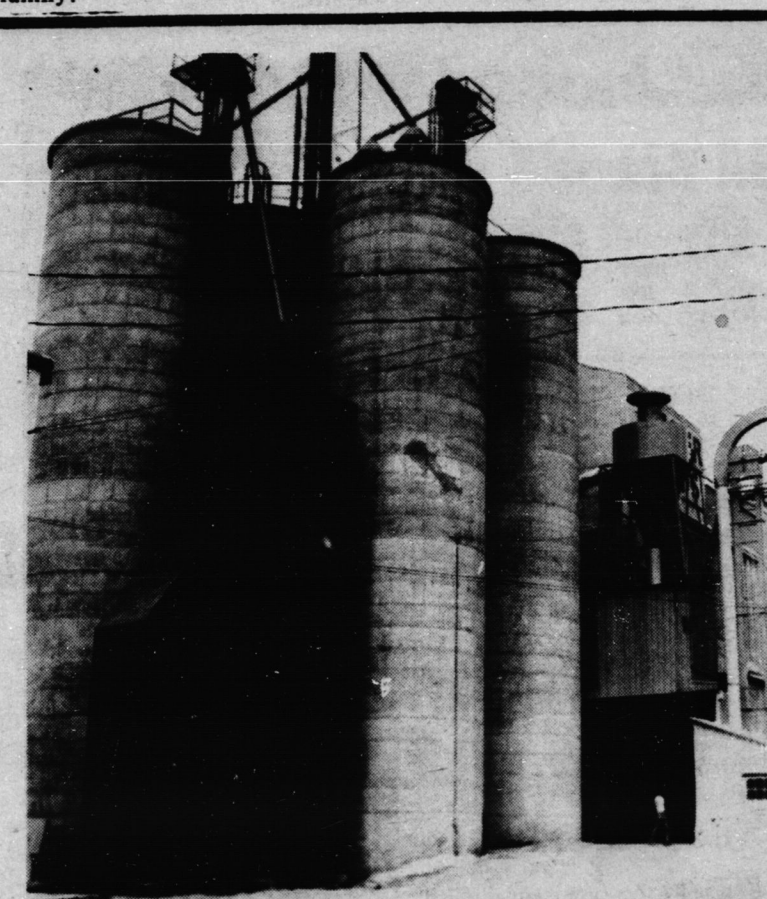

Summer has arrived and so have many of the youthful travellers who are spending the summer months travelling across the land. In this area, we have not yet been deluged with youthful travellers, but even in the numbers we have encountered, it becomes apparent that some steps must be taken here to provide some accommodations for them while they are in Campbellton or Dalhousie. Grants are available for youth hostels, but it is up to the municipality to take the initiative in setting them up. — Campbellton (N.B.) Tribune

VERY DIM

In Canada, hundreds of thousands are searching for work. In Asia, the situation is much worse. Many millions are unemployed or under-employed, and the prospects for the future are bleak. If Western lands, admittedly beset by their own problems yet affluent by global standards, become inattentive and ignore the far more acute ills of the poor nations, the chances of building an integrated and just world community are very dim indeed. — Gananoque (Ont.) Reporter

POSSIBLE SOLUTION

Could it be that the National Parks Commission has hit on a solution to the large yachts tying up and completely monopolizing many of the docks and government islands? We think officials came up with that solution when they installed floating slip-like docks off the main dock at McDonald Island this year. It allows intensive use of the docks as small boat tie-up area and thus permits greater use of the island. — Gananoque (Ont.) Reporter
