

Wight - Banfield

The Nanticoke United Church was the setting of a lovely spring wedding on Saturday, May 15, 1971, when Linda Diane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Banfield of Nanticoke was united in marriage by the Rev. James Betchel, assisted by Rev. Arnold Creaser of Nanticoke, to Richard Harry Wight of Port Dover in a double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Robert Doughty of Nanticoke was organist and Miss Ann Doughty of Nanticoke sang beautiful renditions of "At the Altar" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked charming in a floor length gown of crepe-de-chaume with lace over a bodice of romantic rachel lace. The high neck line and bodice were trimmed with pearls and sequins.

Her four tier shoulder veil was held in place by a crown of sequins and pearls. Her train was trimmed with lace to match her bodice. She carried a bouquet of pink and white sweetheart rose buds and Stephanotis.

Miss Nancy Wight, cousin of the groom was maid of honour. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas Skillings of Innerkip, sister of the bride, and Miss Darlene Wight of Port Dover, sister of the groom. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Katherine Banfield of Nanticoke, sister of the bride.

Tracey Jacobs of Port Dover, friend of the bride was flower girl. All attendants were gowned identically in A-line gowns of pink English crimp knit with silver trim on neck and sleeves. All wore white accessories, and dainty pink rose buds, centered with tiny pearls in their hair. Each carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Mr. James Mayo of Port Dover, friend of the groom was best man. Mr. Donald Banfield and Mr. Douglas Banfield of Nanticoke, brothers of the bride and Mr. Ora McKenzie, Port Dover, cousin of the groom were ushers. Master Larry Banfield of Nanticoke, brother of the bride was ring bearer.

The bride's mother chose a dress of mint green imported diolen crimpknit styled with mutton sleeves and a high waist line. She wore silver accessories and a corsage of orange rose buds. The groom's mother wore a blue crimpknit dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception for about 100 guests was held in the Nanticoke Community Center. Out of town guests were present from Port

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wight

Dover, Simcoe, Jarvis, Hagersville, Cheapside, Caledonia, Hamilton, Exeter, Rexdale, Mt. Brydges and Innerkip.

A wedding dance followed the reception.

The bride's going-away outfit was a navy and pink pant suit. She wore white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Showers prior to the wedding were given by Mrs. Monty Wight and Nancy, Mrs. Gordon Banfield and Mrs. Cecil Clark, Misses Ann and Barbara Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Wight on their return from their honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and points north, will reside in Port Dover.

Baigent presided.

The meeting opened with the ode and Mary Stewart Collect. Roll call was answered by naming our most cherished wedding gift.

Minutes, treasurer's report, bills and correspondence were read. Mrs. Geo. Marshall thanked the ladies for the birthday card she received for her 80th birthday. A letter of thanks was read thanking the WI for our donation of money to Belwood Camp for the retarded. A letter was also read from our link in England.

Mrs. Earl Dyte gave her report from the East Haldimand spring annual dinner and meeting held in May at the agriculture Centre in Kohler. The east Haldimand fall conference will be held at Nelles Corners.

Mrs. Doug Murray reported on being on a bus trip to St. Lawrence Starch Co., with Sims Lock WI.

Mrs. Edwin Parsons was then introduced by our Historical Convener Mrs. Wilfred Last. Mrs. Parsons gave a very enlightening talk on "Glass." A number of beautiful pieces of glass on display were also passed around and each lady admired the beauty and craftsmanship in some of the pieces. One of the best books to read up on glass is "Early Ontario Glass. At one time there was a glass factory in Cayuga. Mrs.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Kiefer, assisted by Mrs. Wm. Armstrong and a social time followed.

Mrs. Dell extended courtesy.

Jarvis Lions Club News

by Ted Oldham

The annual convention was attended by 14 Lions and their wives from Jarvis, there were 22 who left on Saturday, and we were joined by the other six on Sunday, before the parade. There were nearly 200 entries in the parade and it lasted for over three hours. The Jarvis entry won $50 and it was quite a thrill to hear that announcement at the business sessions on Monday morning.

Sunday night at the Necrology service, the flags of all the countries in Lionism were presented, and the names of all the Lions that have died in the past year were read by the district governors. This is a very impressive service, and a high point of every year. There were business sessions every morning, and usually a dinner or dance at night. Several of our group toured Fort Henry one afternoon, and took in the other parts of Kingston. Our District, A 2, held a caucus luncheon on Tuesday. We were the only district that had an election for governor, all the others were acclamations. We were sorry that Parker Leney was unsuccessful, but we wish Biff Potter of St. Catharines, a good year as governor of our district.

Our seven voting delegates attended all the business sessions and will give our reports at our regular meeting on Monday night. We were blessed with good weather, and good fellowship. It was my first Lions Convention, and I hope there will be many more.

The Elder

by G. Taylor-Munro

Twelve by profession of faith, four by transfer of membership, that is the shortest manner in which to report about the family and reception meeting in Knox Church basement on Friday night June 4, 1971, preparing for their first communion as members of Knox Congregation on Sunday morning June 6.

What was different about this occasion? Usually such people are presenting themselves because they have submitted to various degrees of formal instruction and lecturing by the minister. On this occasion there had been a return to the old-time function of the Elder. The Elder was the person who had visited the prospective members. The Elder was the one who had answered their questions and presented the challenge of that moment of decision. Among the 11 elders were two men who had superintended the Knox Church Sunday School through 12 years when most of these communicants had been growing up to young adulthood. Those two men knew how thoroughly the years had prepared these candidates for their reasonable step into the more adult, the more responsible level of belonging. Another Elder succeeding as Superintendents the previous two with another of the men of the congregation, both of these fathers of a growing family, knew of the reasonableness and practical value of leadership in keeping in view the ultimate purpose of a church school, to train and exercise young hearts and minds in preparation for that day when each would resolve to be on God's side as over against the forces of destruction and falsehood, remaining in that number by faith in the Lord and Head of His Church and in partnership with Him, Jesus Christ. This year's communicant class will be marked throughout the story of the local congregation as the product of the Elder and his giving over into the hands of the younger generation, the torch of faith and the task of working for the same goal for those who come after, by the grace of God. Obviously their capacity to accept responsibility, their understanding of what it means to work out your own salvation will grow even more now in the church and the home community, their world.
