delegates from Northern Ontario visited us from July 31 to August 6. They were hosted by Ralph Hedley and Paula Gee. Four of our 4-Hers spent the week of July 27 in the Parry Sound District, and then had a return visit from their Northern hosts during the week of August 10 to 15. Our 4-Hers taking part were Janice Fox, Charles Jude, Wayne Burgess and Alice Harvey.

A group of 4-H Swine Club members set out for Hamilton on August 11 to tour a packing plant. Later in the month, on August 20, the 4-H Field Crop members toured the Elora Research Station and the A.I. Unit at Guelph.

The Junior Farmer Association in Haldimand hosted two delegates this summer from the province of Nova Scotia. The visitors spent the week of August 14 to 21 at the homes of Pat Kline, Wayne Ettinger and Harold Hedley.

The Junior Farmers got together on the evening of August 20 for a ball game and record dance in Canfield.

The 4-Hers of Haldimand attended their Annual Judging Competition in Caldeonia this year on August 22. They judged classes of Dairy Cattle, Beef and Swine. They also did a seed identification class and a tool identification class. The 4-Hers also spent time to evaluate a farm management situation and took a look at some possible careers for their future.

A reunion picnic was held for all past and present Junior Farmer members at Grand Oaks Park on August 23. They were very pleased with the large number of Junior Farmers who attended.

Bright and early on Wednesday, August 26, about 50 4-Hers boarded a school bus and headed off to tour three of the conservation parks in the Upper Grand River Conservation Area. Several 4-Hers and Junior Farmers took part in the CNE Judging Competition on September 3 in Toronto. One of the Haldimand 4-Hers, Phil Coulter, received first prize in Section 1 Championship Competition.

In addition to this lengthy list of special activities, the 4-Hers were busy preparing their livestock for the Caldeonia Fair, October 1. They also planned and constructed special exhibits for the Fair.

The Junior Farmers held a Tractor Rodeo on September 12 at the Rural Youth and Agricultural Center, Kohler. Although they did not have a large turnout everyone had a good time driving through a rather difficult course.

The 4-H and Junior Farmer Programs are much more than a group of young people trying to become farmers. They are dynamic programs in the development of the leaders of tomorrow and an excellent opportunity to cultivate the wholesome enjoyment of having a good time with others their own age.

INCREASE SHOWN LETHBRIDGE, Alta. (CP) - Livestock officials estimated the value of livestock which passed through Lethbridge public stockyards and federally inspected packing plants during 1970 at $83.9 million. The figure represents an increase of $7.3 million over 1969.

ment of the levy isn't own. Ted Oldham told council "we should scream if our increase is only $100."

Deve Austin said he thought the new factor could mean by using last year's levy an additional $1000.

He said: "There is no way you can compare the old way at arriving at a factor with the new way."

Other business council received an application from Telephone Co. of Canada to put a cable right-of-way through the Village.

Passed a construction bylaw for the new reservoir to enable the municipality to issue a 10-year debenture for $80,000 to pay the construction costs.

Mehlenbacher, 15, of Selkirk. Seriously injured was John Stokes, 18, of Richmond Hill driver of the death car.

Other passengers in the car but with less serious injuries were Danny Shrepnek, 17, and Brian Anderson, 17, also both of Richmond Hill.

Driver of the other car was Michael Dale Benner, 17, of Fisherville. Virginia Booker, 17, also of Fisherville was a passenger in the second car. Both were treated for injuries.

town to accommodate the industry.

He added, however, the request was a contradiction from OWRC which had stated in an earlier letter a proposed subdivision with 50 lots on Park Road would be the limit of the municipality's facilities.

"I don't understand this and I certainly would hate to turn down an industry or lose one if at all possible," he said.

The council decided it would try to have the matter clarified as well as discuss it with Walpole officials.

Council also: - Passed final reading on a bylaw to issue a 10-year debenture for $17,492 to cover costs for modifying and extending the sludge digester at the sanitary sewer plant.

Learned that tax arrears outstanding since 1968 total $24,056. For 1970, $16,948; 1969, $5,632 and 1968, $1,475.

Learned only two building permits were issued for February. They were for an addition to a commercial business at a cost of $1,000 and the erection of a sign at a cost of $400.

Who is Mister IGA?

He's an independent businessman who cares about the community in which he lives and works.

You'll likely find him involved with a local minor league hockey club or with your own lodge or service club. He may have chaired your last United Appeal meeting.

Mr. IGA is much more than the owner-manager of a food store -- he's a man involved in his community. He really cares!
