Balmoral LA

The monthly meeting of the Community Baptist Balmoral Ladies Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Glen Elfner.

The first part of the evening was spent in making bandages for mission hospitals.

The President, Mrs. G. Hoover, opened the meeting by welcoming everyone and thanking the hostess for opening her home.

Mrs. W. Nauman, box convener, gave a report on projects completed. A letter was read from Africa thanking the auxiliary for a parcel received. KEEP THE FUN

It is possible that certain regulations and education are indicated to make snowmobiling safer, but not so much of either that it takes the fun out of it. -Swift Current (Sask.) Sun

The devotions were given by Mrs. G. Marshall who opened with prayer. "Recruiting" was the theme of her talk. She quoted the hymn "The Son of God goes Forth to War."

Mrs. G. Hoover closed in prayer. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Schurr and the hostess.

Continued From Page with one side arguing that it would solve liabilities resulting from a possible accident and the other side arguing that each municipality should do its own policing. Mr. Disher told the board there had been some misunderstanding about the resolution and that he intended to reintroduce the matter at a later date.

CAYUGA - The Cayuga Chamber of Commerce will carry on here after a debate on the organization's future was held March 8.

President Allan Stitt, who chaired the meeting, said there had been some consideration of cancelling the charter of the chamber. Reeve Ted Powell urged the group to carry on in view of the predicted developments along the north shore of Lake Erie. He also predicted much faster growth for the Village because of the recent installation of new sanitary sewer and water facilities as well as new sidewalks.

He said the population
