

Rangers Enjoy Skating & Fellowship

March 12, 17 rangers from Haldimand met at Cayuga to go skating at the arena there. After skating, the rangers went to the Cayuga Scout Hall to enjoy the rest of the evening together and stay overnight.

Making their own fun, the girls enjoyed songs, games, practising levitation; and some dealt in the supernatural with the Ouija board. Through this evening together the rangers attending from Dunnville, Hagersville and Jarvis got to know each other better. The event was supervised by two Ranger Leaders, Miss Pat Petracca of Hagersville and Mrs. Barbara Thompson of Jarvis.

Rangers are the senior branch of the Girl Guide Movement, for girls 14 to 18 years of age. Any girl in this age group can join a ranger company. The girls run the company themselves.

Commercial League Report

The Jarvis Record, Thursday, March 25, 1971 — 13 count 3-0; many fans believed a Hawk rout was in the making.

As the second stanza began, the big gun of Garnet, Fred McKeen broke the scoring drought as he rapped in a close-in shot set up by Paul Beischlag and Jim McKeen. Late in the period at 19:08, once again big Fred rambled in and snapped home a 15 footer past David Kett for a 3-2 hockey game. Both teams were skating extremely well and very few penalties were assessed by referees Peter Myke and Paul Kett.

When the Plowboys took to the ice in the third period, the determination and drive of the big Garnet squad seemed to overwhelm the Hawks. After Larry Simon had notched his third goal of the night to give Hagersville a 4-2 lead, the contest became all Plowboy.

At 3:21 Gord Winger fired home a Bob Awde pass from 10 feet in front of goaltender Dave Kett and again at the 6:54 mark, Winger once again converted a Russell Douglas pass into a pretty goal to tie the game at 4-4.

My impression was that for some reason coach Lou Atkinson's team just "ran out of gas." As the Garnet team got stronger, the Hawk crew weakened and finally at 11:19, hustling Bob Awde took a Tom Saunders rebound and Garnet climbed into the lead 5-4.

The Hawks tried to mount an offensive in the dying minutes but the powerful Plowboy crew were not about to give this game back. As the final buzzer sounded, the score read 5-4 for Garnet and they now carried a 2-0 lead into Tuesday, March 23rd's hockey game. Another victory will clinch the championship for Garnet.

My special praise goes out to Larry Simon for a valiant losing effort; also David "Sprocket" Kett filling in so capably for regular Henry Davis; big Fred McKeen with two great goals and a lot of hard work; Perry

Pankhurst and John Beischlag and several others on both clubs. Great game fellows — good luck to everyone on Tuesday — win or lose. See you next week.
