On The Farm Front

High yield competitions for 1971 sponsored by the Haldimand Soil and Crop Improvement Association have been announced. Closing date for entries in the wheat, oat, and barley competitions is June 1. Entries in the soybean and corn competitions will be due at a later date.

Directors of Norfolk Fair announce that their Black and White Show date has been changed to Tues., Oct. 5. This change of date will make it possible for Haldimand Holstein breeders to exhibit at Simcoe as well as at the championship show at Erin later that week.

One-third of all crop losses are caused by weed competition. Recent tests at the Ridgetown Agricultural college show that 850 pounds of water are needed to produce one pound of lamb-quarters or ragweed. The same amount of water would produce two pounds of corn.

Market forecasts for hog marketing indicate a possible five percent increase during July to September over the similar period a year ago. From October through March 1972 the CDA forecast would be for a nine percent decline in hog production.

Mrs. Lorna Miller, Dunnville, chairman of the County Exhibits Committee for the International Plowing Match, has been in contact with various county organizations. In Mrs. Miller's words, "The county is providing space for interested exhibitors, whether they be industry, organizations or individuals. We want to show what our county has to offer, what our industries are, and the social services either past, present or future on which our lives are based." Interested parties or groups are asked to advise Mrs. Miller by June 30.

Rainham Dairy Calf Club

The second meeting was held at Phillip Nie's home on May 4.

The judging of cattle was demonstrated to the first year members. Later, we judged and gave reasons for our decisions.

The juniors and seniors were split into two groups. Mr. Nagel led the junior lesson while Mr. Biggar led the senior members.

The business part of the meeting started with the pledge then roll call, and finally the minutes of the last meeting.

Our trip to Woodstock was discussed, the next meeting will be June 1 at David Lindsay's home.

We ended our meeting with a snack and refreshments. Our thanks to our host and hostess.

THE WEEKLIES SAY...

ONLY CURE

There has been general condemnation of all oil companies which have given us another year in the cost of fuel and gasoline. They are already the richest business enterprises in the world and apparently intend to grow richer. But in doing so are inviting down upon their heads the ultimate nationalization, which we believe is about the only way for their greed for profits, as it is for the drug companies which are charging prices so exorbitant that the only drugs in Canada are about the highest in the world. Campbellton (N.B.) Tribune

UNEASY FEELING

Now that residents of Ontario as well as Canadian provinces are beginning to take another look at educational costs, one would imagine that the department of university affairs will not look enthusiastically upon a college of applied sciences for Kenora. The headline in the Kenora News, concerning the report, read "College Would Bring New Industry". There is an uneasy feeling now among many residents that perhaps northern Ontario already has too many postsecondary educational facilities. - Fort Frances (Ont.) Times

WE'RE WONDERING

Pronounced moves by both the United States and China to raise the bamboo curtain... we're wondering what's behind it all. We may get a clue in Paris when Vietnam peace talks have been going around in the Swift Current (Sask.) Sun

THERE'S HOPE

Robert Munroe (81) and Ian Campbell (67) sailed the wintry Atlantic for 120 days in a tiny boat from their native Scotland to the Bahamas... they give new life to the old saw that while there's life, there's hope. - Humboldt (Sask.) Journal

A LITTLE UNDERSTANDING

On the probability of a white backlash (in the Northwest Territories)... surely a little understanding on all sides and a little less interference from outsiders and Johnny-come-latelies would get us back to living as northerners and solving obvious problems in a reasonable manner. - Yellowknife (N.W.T.) News of the North

POPULAR ISSUE

The question of income tax exemptions for northern residents is a perennial and popular issue. It always pops up during election campaigns, but in bad weather, nobody seems to do anything about it. Whitehorse (Y.T.) Star

$500,000 Grant For Grandview

DUNNVILLE - The Ontario Department of Social and Family Services has announced a grant of $500,000 in addition to Grandview Lodge Home for the Aged.

Minister of Social Services and James Allan MPP for Haldimand-Norfolk made the joint announcement.

A previous payment had been made for nearly a quarter of a million dollars and now a cheque is being sent to the county for $247,114 for the balance of the grant.

The grant will help to pay construction costs for phase one of the rebuilding program of the lodge.

With the new addition the lodge will be able to care for 195 elderly citizens. It was constructed in 1910 with additions made in 1957 and 1962 of two wings to care for bed patients and special care patients.

During the new phase of rebuilding an addition in the shape of a 'V' is being constructed on the two wings to accommodate normal care patients.

Two sitting rooms located in the centre of each wing and a large foyer will be at the place where the new construction joins.

As soon as Phase one is complete phase two will be started. The final construction will add a great deal to the facilities of the lodge.

It will have general purpose room which will be available for use as an auditorium or games room. It will have shuffle board court markings.

A coffee room is planned to be located next to a new dining room. Across the hall from the lounge will be a new triangular shaped chapel.
