by Otto Crone

The Haldimand County Federation of Agriculture had as its guest James N. Allan M.P. at the annual meeting on Nov. 8. Mr. Allan spoke briefly and wished the organization continued success in the coming year as well as offering congratulations on their past performance.

During the evening reports of the past years activities were given by the committee chairmen. The executive for the coming year are:

Past President, Orlin Rittenhouse; President, Otto Crone; first Vice-President, Avery Evans; second Vice-President, Bert Stam.

Treasurer and County Director to O.F.A. is Marc Stephenson.

Committee members are: Ray Cowie, Gordon Booker and Russel Smith.

Three resolutions were approved to be forwarded to the O.F.A. convention. In brief they are as follows:

As a result of some unsatisfactory service rendered by individuals and corporations offering income tax preparation services it will be requested that such persons be licensed to ensure that only qualified people engage in this occupation.

Due to technical advances in agriculture, farm buildings are often obsolete and sometimes discarded before they are fully depreciated. We are asking that the capital cost allowance on farm buildings be raised to a more realistic rate for tax purposes.

Because of corporations becoming involved in large scale agriculture enterprises not protected by law from competition to the detriment of farmers already established in such production, we request that O.F.A. examine the moral issues involved to determine the effects of such enterprises on the farm.

Triple F Discusses Mental Health

Over 30 members and guests attended the November meeting of the Hagersville Triple F Club on Saturday Nov. 20.

The meeting was held in the Christian Education Wing of the United Church, where President Marie Hewitt presided over the business meeting. During this period of business, it was interesting to note the chart on Talent Money, also a schedule was passed to the members regarding the taking of home-baked cookies to Hendriks Nursing Home, King St. W.

Some discussion took place regarding the proposed chartered bus trip to the Ice Capades, as well as tentative plans for a Lucky Luncheon.

Cancer Meeting

Roy Delaney, executive secretary of the Canadian Cancer Society for the Hamilton Area, was present at a meeting on Monday afternoon, Nov. 15. All officers of the Hagersville Branch were present at the meeting held at the home of Mrs. Carl Slat, Howard St., at which time many business matters were dealt with.

Later in the afternoon, at 3.35 p.m., the second call of the day was responded to at the home of Marc Sephenson, Lot 1, of Concession 11 in Walpole. A roast on the stove was responsible for the call of assistance by local firemen, where smoke damage resulted.

Erie

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Bertly Brown spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Packham at Smithville.

A miscellaneous shower was held for Vicky Nagel at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Best on Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Jamieson of Vanessa were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Booth.

Mr. and Mrs. Minnie Lint, who is a patient in the Dunnville Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Leagas of Guelph spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fugler and daughters of Hamilton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell.

A letter of thanks was read from the Retarded Adult Opportunity Centre at Canfield, for the donation of $300.

In charge of Worship Service, which was activated by the 23rd Psalm, were Mr. and Mrs. John VanLoon, and Mrs. Margaret Lougheed. The guest speaker of the evening, was Rev. John W. Roberts of

Following the program, a Cake Walk was enjoyed by all, with at least one couple winning three deserts for Sunday dinner.

Mrs. Hilda Atkinson, also a member of the November committee, assisted in serving lunch. The December meeting will be the annual Christmas Family Pot Luck Supper.

Barn Destroyed In Fire

Hagersville Volunteer Firemen answered two calls in less than 15 hours on Thursday, Nov. 18. At approximately 1.15 a.m., a call was received to the farm of Fred Carl, Lot 8, Concession 12 of Walpole. Mr. Carl's barn was destroyed by fire which was beyond control at the time of the call to firemen.

Later in the afternoon, at 3.35 p.m., the second call of the day was responded to at the home of Marc Sephenson, Lot 1, of Concession 11 in Walpole. A roast on the stove was responsible for the call of assistance by local firemen, where smoke damage resulted.

R.R. 5 Hagersville, who chose the topic Mental Health.

This subject proved most interesting, and resulted in group discussion. Terry Patterson, who was also a guest of the Club, assisted Rev. Roberts in a three-fold discussion on the mental health problem in society to-day.

Following the program, a Cake Walk was enjoyed by all, with at least one couple winning three deserts for Sunday dinner.

Mrs. Hilda Atkinson, also a member of the November committee, assisted in serving lunch. The December meeting will be the annual Christmas Family Pot Luck Supper.
